Bill (SURFER)
you don't know I'm writing this. I'm not going to sign my name because you know who I am. I was and still am in love with you!
don't care about DORT or anyone, I love you.
I'll die before I give you up.

Bill -
Manny good times to remember think? The Senior trip and the day after the prom. Doesn't it make you a little sad to think back.
Be good to Dorothy and keep those

Bill,

Our big year is over & I'm sure you have many fond memories.
I wish you the best of everything next year for you deserve much success.

Bill -
Well this year has gone fast but I'm glad I got to know you a little better this year. You're really a great guy & I wish you the best in the future!
Debbi

Bill -

This years been great.
I glad you and Dori got together. You make a fine couple. Best of luck in the future. See you this summer.

SAVE

DEAR BILL,

Never did I ever think that I would end up going with you. Bill Bennetts, of all people. Isn't it funny. But it's true. Although we have both change it could only be for the better. You have given me such a great senior year and we have so many memories that will be with us forever. I'll never forget the surprised look on your face when you were wished a happy birthday by what seemed to be a mob ^{of mad} people. We sure had fun during football season, especially with all the parties. Then, along came "Swimming": "O.K. Bill, swim two miles and don't candy!" "Yeah right Coach." But what came out of your great spirit and willingness to work? A letter, but there was something even better. You became a better person. By this I mean you learned to accept things that didn't go your way... More power to ya!

I can recall one fight that we had. This only involved snow. There is nothing like having a clean face or having that refreshed feeling of snow down the ol' back. Ha - but it was fun.

You ham! Picking me up for the senior prom in cut-offs. I thought it was a gas even though I was accused of being a grouch by some other persons.

I am forced to believe that our relationship isn't just ordinary but something more. Throughout the year we have been faced with many troubles, problems, and pressures. It's funny, however, that none of them ever affected us. Maybe and most likely) your parents had some good motives behind the pressure that they created. But instead of discouraging us we naturally became closer together. I think they only helped us to become closer. One thing I have always felt is that knowing that you are trusted you tend to carry it out. But once you feel that you aren't trusted it tends to go the other way.

If only they could realize the relationship that we have. It is sincere, faithful understanding and most of all respectful.

I'm sure that if they knew this they would be pleased. The very best thing that is between us is our compatibility. I can't even begin to tell of the fun that we have together and all the time too.

One thing that is very important is our education.

LEMAO

Four years of college or even more.

When you want something bad enough you work for it and usually get it.

This is what I want!

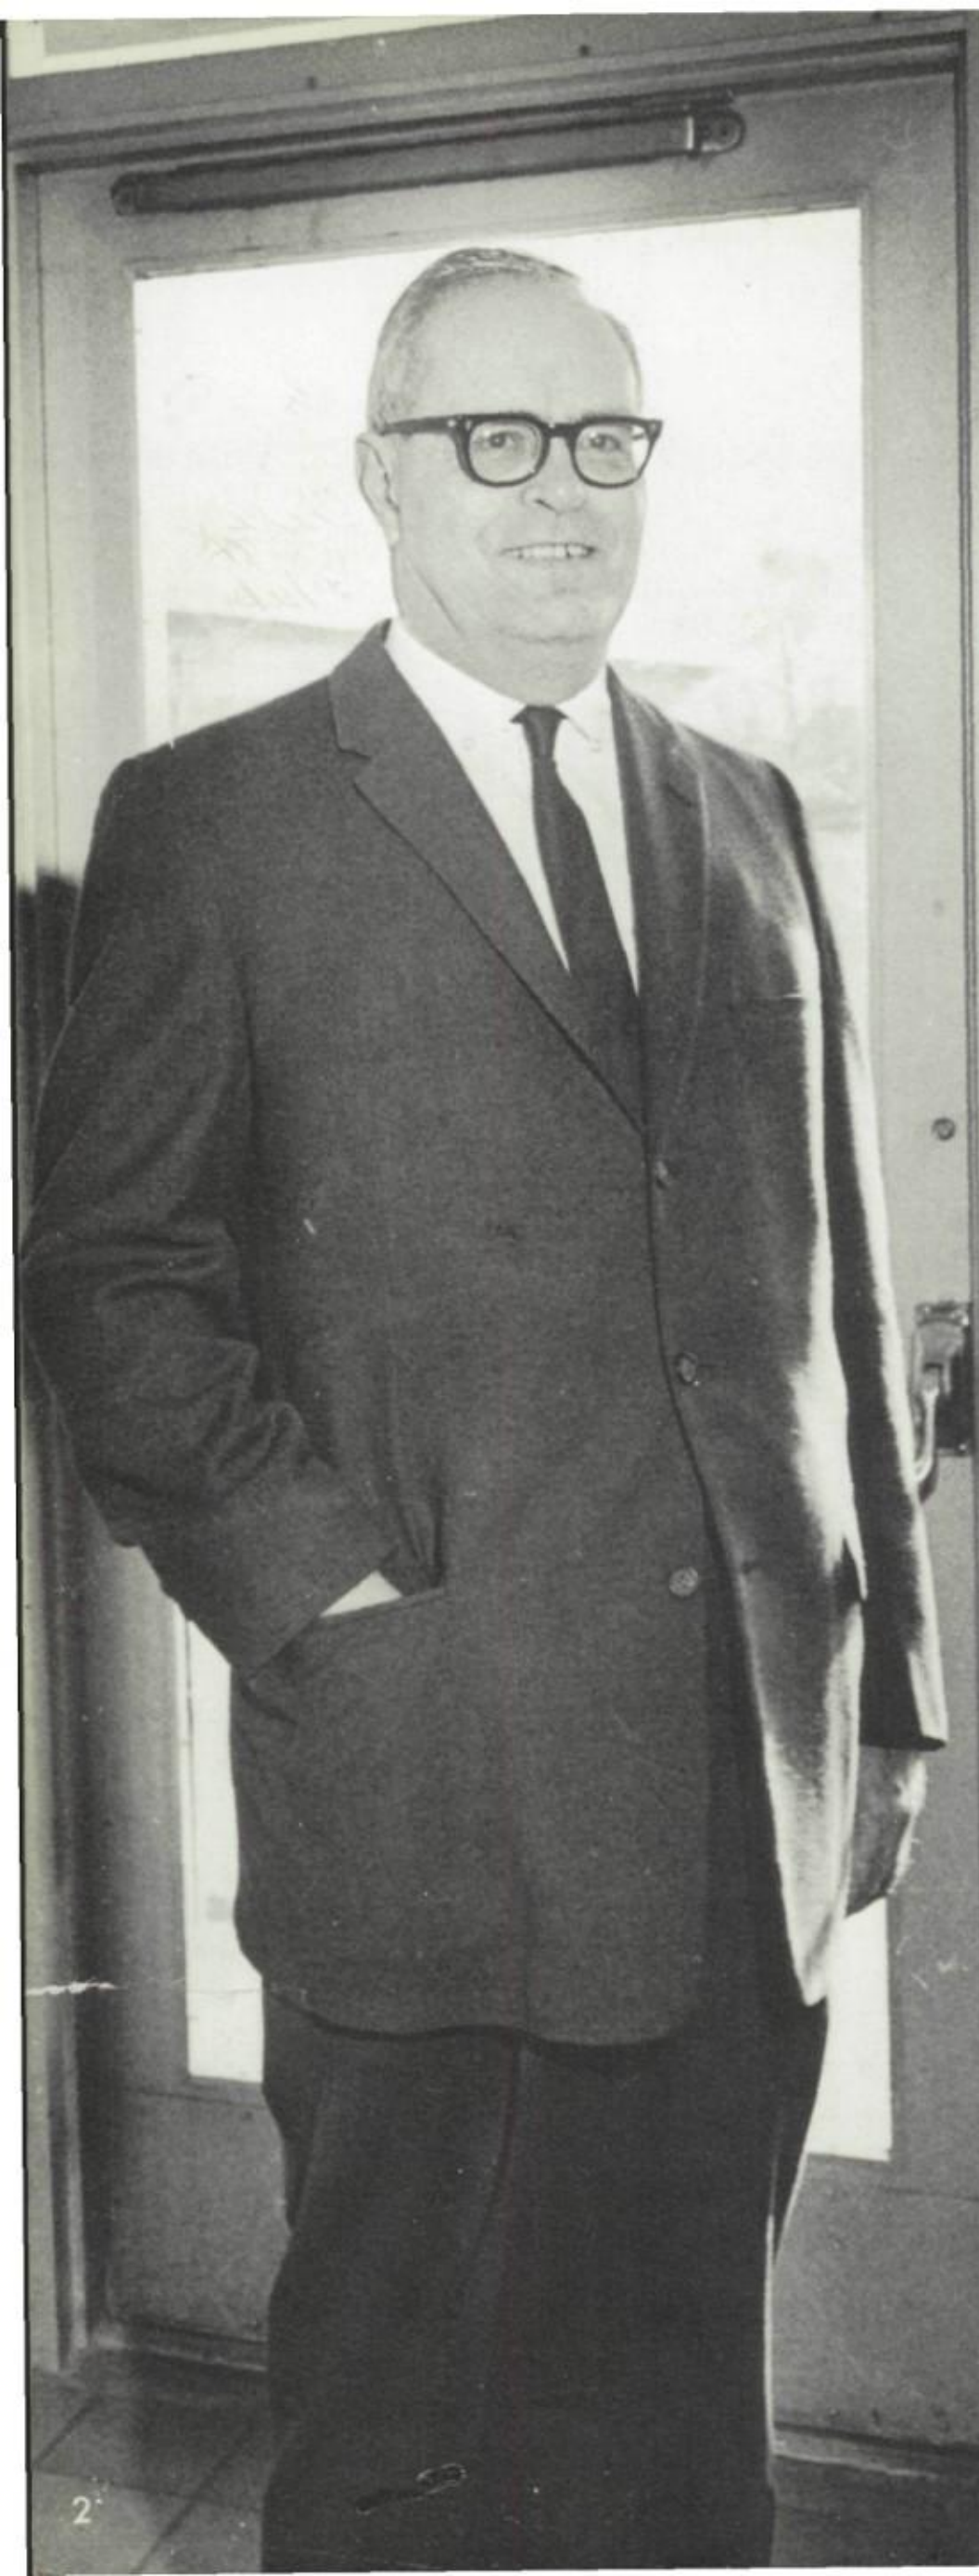

Maybe your parents don't see it this way. But I don't expect them to because they look at things differently than me.

You know Bill, sometimes I get confused. Some days your parents exclaim how happy they are that we are going together.

and the next day they resent the fact. The only thing that this whole situation has proved is that we can withstand any problems that we must face - but this is only the beginning.

You and I have always enjoyed being at each others houses but how can I go to your house when I don't feel welcome. The other night when I ate dinner at your house was great. It was like old times again. The times when I used to be close to your parents and enjoyed their company. Did you see that when ~~we~~ we got along the other night with no friction how good we all felt afterward. Nothing could ever be better than closeness and understanding.

Next year I'll be going away to college. We will both be dating other people but this is only a test.

CECIL E. MACDONALD

Superintendent

of East Lansing Public Schools

1950 to 1965

We may find that our feeling may change as our interest does but this isn't necessarily so. Time will only tell us that.

I hope once again that

He guided East Lansing Schools for 15 years in our time of greatest growth.

He inherited a strife-torn school system and led it gently to community unity.

He was firm when firmness was needed, foresighted when change was needed.

He knew us better than we knew ourselves and led us to our responsibilities.

He retires this year from the school system
but not from our hearts.

Your parents and I regain our close relationship as before.
I think a lot of them and I ~~th~~ look up to them. I hope this feeling is once

Bill - This has really been a genius year for our class. Things we will never forget. I wish we could have had more classes together, at least one, but I guess the administration was just wise to you this year. I hope everything in the following years works out great for you and that your future is a happy one. Good luck working next year - making all the millions - I know I'll see you around in Kh. even if it might be at Mass - Always, Jo

Bill, English
 wouldn't have been the same without you and your little jokes
 the swim meets were quite interesting for some of us girls. Lots of luck this summer and next year. Stay fun at school but trouble. Lots of luck,

PREPARE FOR TOMORROW

Benny Baby,

God there's so much to remember you stupid jerk.
That day in V. U.
Football on the
"Hot Corner."

Ed Graper's Biology class and the extra smart back row. Waterballooning, skateboarding, and just screwing
around in general.
Best Wishes Swoops
in all that you do kid. Take it cool and don't get your hairs cut. Love

Bill,

These past years sure have gone fast! From Junior High right up to now! I have enjoyed knowing you and hope to see you in the future. Best of luck in all that you do - I know that your attempts will always turn out for the best. Love ya' change, and yours is one of them. Don't and you would get my vote for the coolest couple of the year, I'm sure it will last a lot longer. Good luck, to guy who doesn't need

it. With your looks and personality you're sure to go far. (Don't drown surfing this summer) (wid m... ya)

Mary Ellen

Bill,
Well, my mom always told me if you can't say something nice, you shouldn't say it at all. So I won't.
You really are a sweet, nice & crude person. Your ideals are high & good luck next year at Aids. Best of luck always & every success, you and Dorothy are a darling couple.

Love,
Cindy Chevako

Pride and Prejudice

Nov. 20th 8:00 P.M. 75¢

Making sure that her five daughters are all "well disposed in marriage" is the primary concern of Mrs. Bennett in Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice presented by the class of '65.

Mr. Bennett, badgered, frantic, and witty father of these five daughters, also becomes entangled in their complicated love affairs and does his bit to see them well married.

Barb George, chairman of the make-up committee, puts the final touches on Joan Jolly (Jane).

Mr. Darcy has just proposed.

Elizabeth tells off Lady Catherine.

Jane and Elizabeth try to calm Mrs. Bennett, their high strung mother.

Mr. Bennett has some very strong opinions on family affairs.

The obsequious Mr. Collins.

SENIORS SHOW

The first skill in Mr. Pulley's Econ class is to catch the test; the second—to pass it.

Chad Hocking and Dave Warrington are willing to give their all for the Senior bell.

VARIETY OF INTERESTS

Students who have received the Trojan honor award through January, 1965 are: BACK ROW: Jim Adams, Steve Reynolds, Bill Hamilton. SECOND ROW: Lori Shingleton, Linda Nelson, Barb George, Barb Lipp, Nancy Dillinger, Lisa Bosch. FRONT ROW: Mary Lee Guyer, Kathy Bedford, Nancy Erickson, Jo Hooker, Tina Cross. Not pictured are Marilyn Howey, June Lombardini, John Sebeson, Collin Babcock, and Roger Williams.

EXTENDING WORLD FRIENDSHIP

Oz brings his poncho to combat Michigan's winter.

Students from Uruguay, Denmark, and Germany enrolled in ELHS this year, and by their contributions opened windows on the world for their classmates. Their participation in clubs, extracurricular activities, and community affairs brought flavor to these groups, and gave the exchange students an intimate acquaintance with life in East Lansing. Christel has stayed with Ann McCauley, Oz with Eilers Beeskow, and Ann has lived with Sherry Vore.

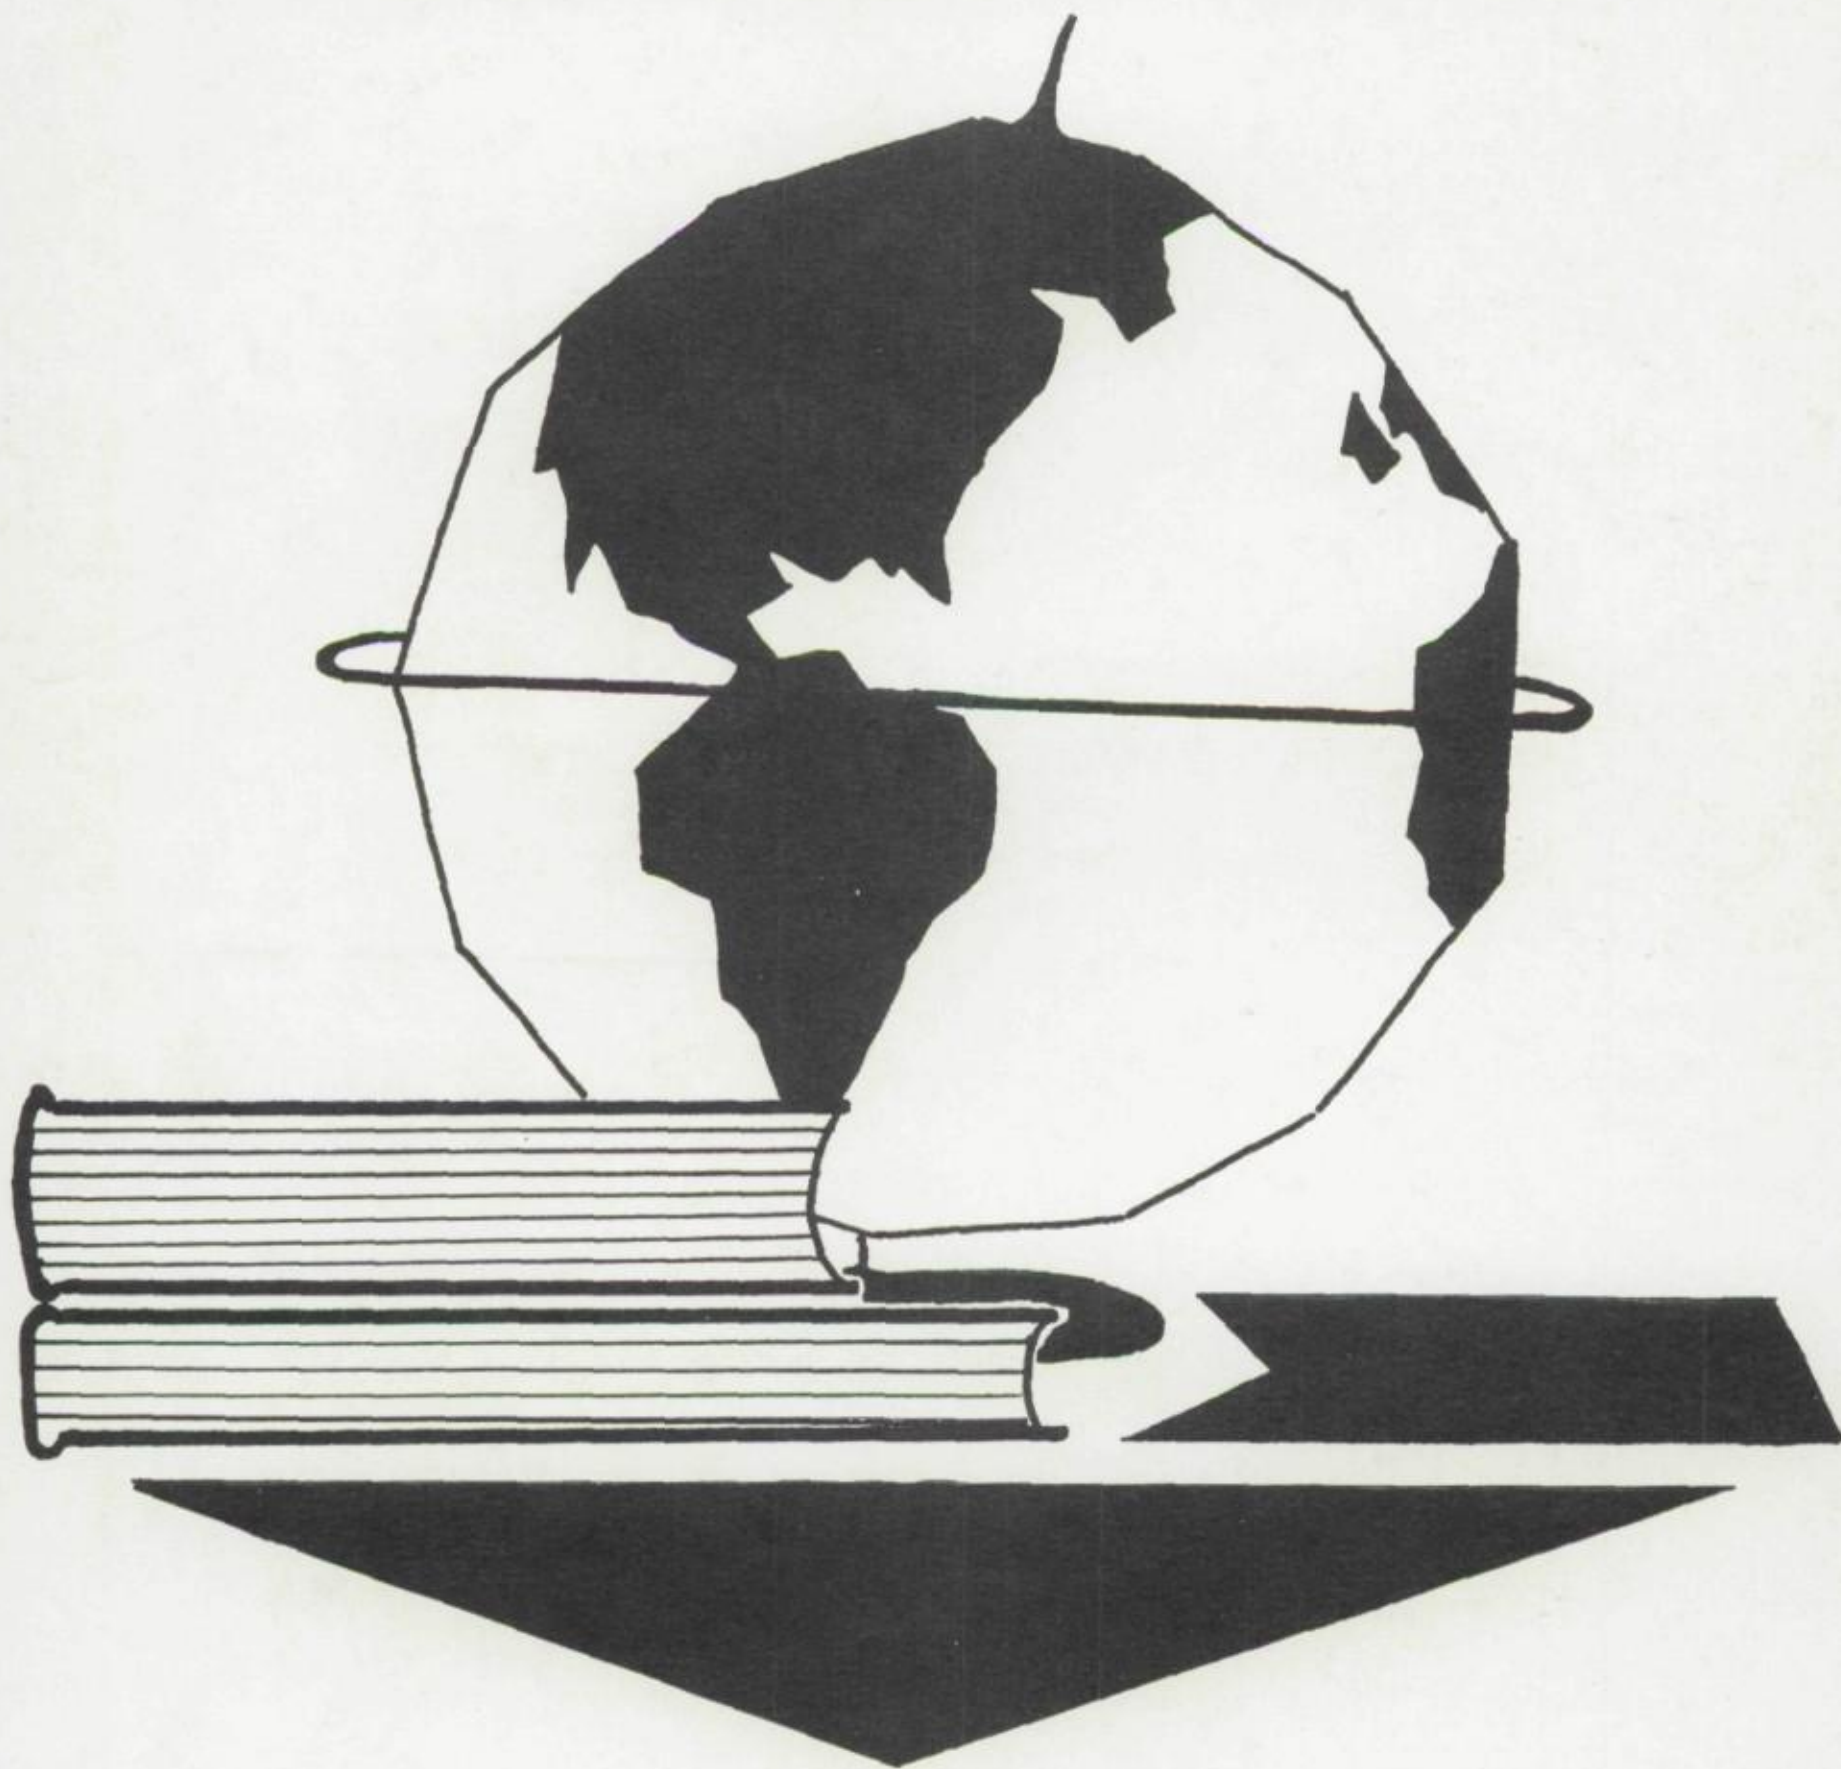

Christel gives pleasure to American classmates with her doll collection.

Christel Bachmann from Germany, Osvaldo Brusa from Uruguay, and Anne Blirup from Denmark promote international understanding at ELHS.

AUTOGRAHS

Willie,
Just keep coming them. I know what your ambition in life is, as does everyone else; to be a "Beach Boy" just keep trying, you'll never make it. It's too bad you have to take W.A.R.'s final, but that's the break. Hack with Dorothy and all that shit, also have fun sitting up those displays for O.L.B. (G)

P.S. Remember the "Kinky" ^{"67"} ~~5/5/5~~

Hi Beach Boy, Man we really took so this year from a certain W.A.R. I only hope I don't have to come back.
It really to God
about your radio show!! I thought it was really good hack always
Bruce
'67

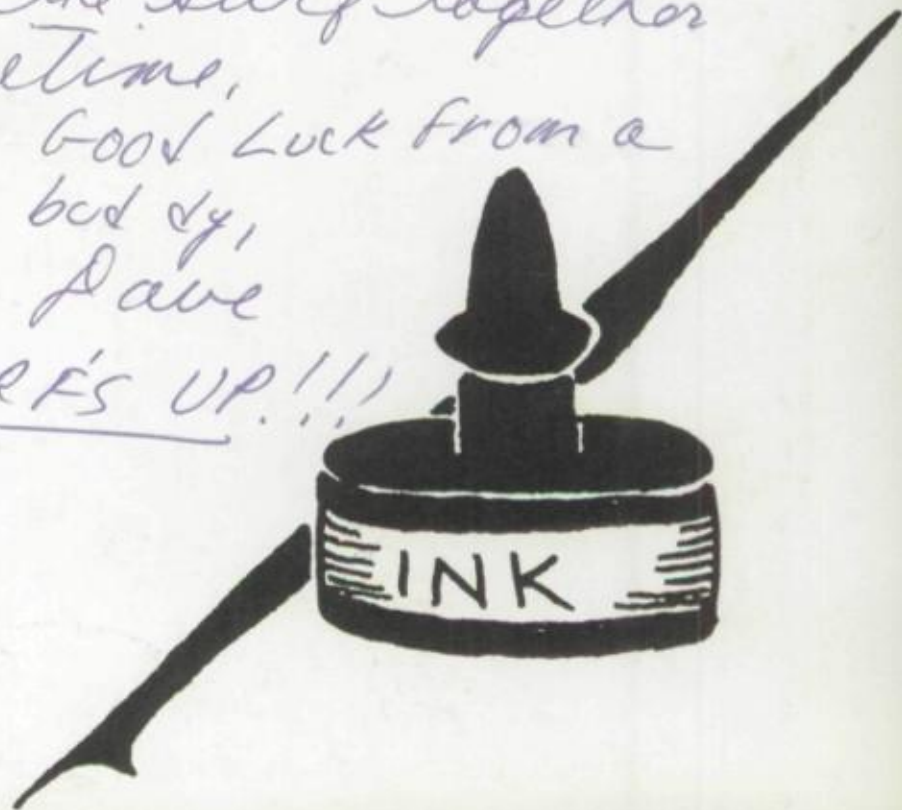

Bill,
You've been a great gym instructor and a great swimmer. Good luck at basketball and have fun in college.

Dave H.
Class of '68

Bill,
It has really been cool to know you the last 4 years. I'll never forget our GREAT HEIST at West Jr. or our tremendous freshman Bball games. Have fun working at West Eastern.
Who knows? maybe we'll hit the surf together
sometime.

Good Luck From a bud dy,
Dave

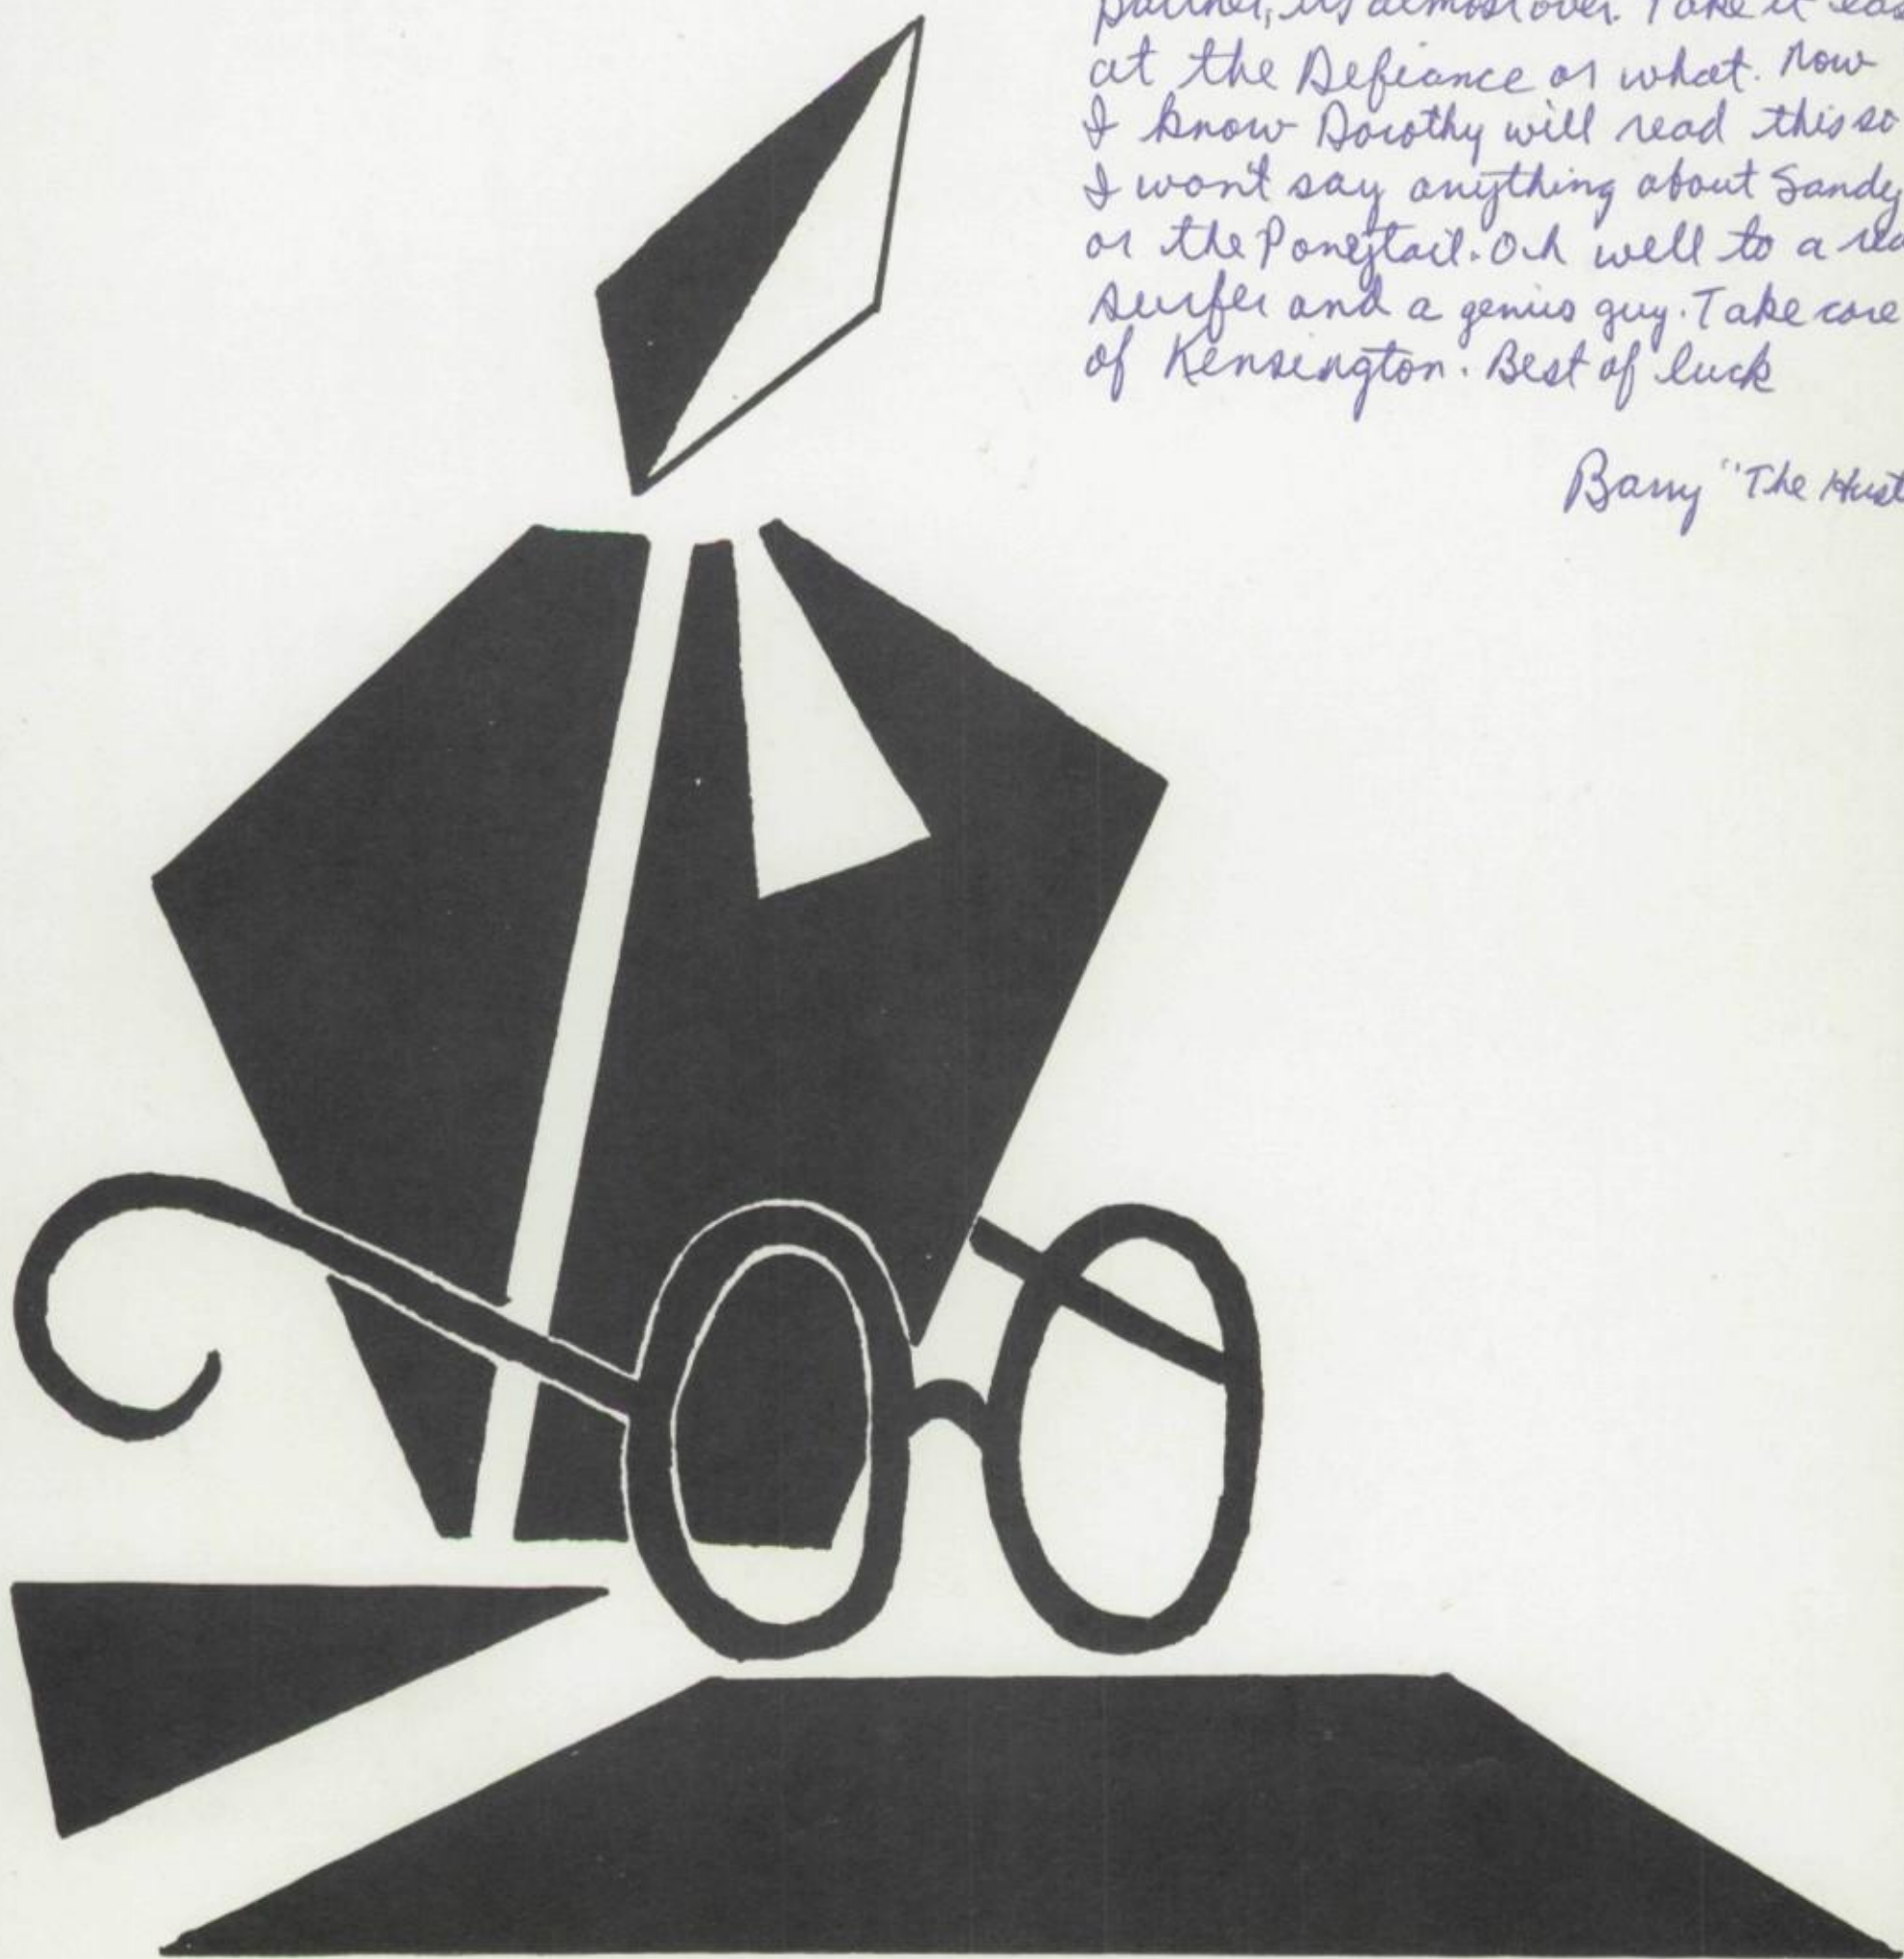

P.S. - SURF'S UP!!!

CURRICULUM

Benny,
Well my 9 ball fish and bowling partner, it's almost over. Take it easy at the Defiance or what. Now
I know Dorothy will read this so I won't say anything about Sandy or the Ponytail. Oh well to a real surfer and a genius guy. Take care of Kensington. Best of luck

the TROJAN Trumpet

The Trojan Trumpet, the E.L.H.S. newspaper, is published monthly during the school year by a student staff. Subscription rates are $1.75 or included with an activity ticket. Its reporters are volunteers from any class, and members of Journalism Club. This year's editorial staff were Cathy Hoven, News; Pat Moyer, Editorials; Jody Newman, Features; Tom Atkin, Sports; and Boyd Schumaker, Photographer. They are selected from applicants with writing experience by advisors, Miss Cuff and Miss Findley. The editors work on the paper during club periods on Friday and after school. They check the layout at the Towne Courier office before it is sent to the publisher in Greenville. The Trojan Trumpet is a member of Columbia Scholastic Press and Quill and Scroll, an international journalism fraternity for high school students. Their awards included Quill and Scroll, first place, Class A Central Michigan, last year, and Columbia Medalist for '64 and '65.

Sponsors Miss Cuff and Miss Findley, STANDING, gather for their weekly news conference with the editorial staff, Cathy Hoven, Jody Newman, Tom Atkin, Pat Moyer, and Boyd Schumaker.

Reporters Bepi Pinner, Lori Shingleton, Lisa Bosch, and Marilyn May skim other newspapers for ideas.

Barb Hickok, secretary-treasurer; Miss Leeman, sponsor; and Kathy Richards, president, consider a new selection for club discussion.

READERS LEARN THROUGH DISCUSSION

FRONT ROW: Sue Elliott, Mary Senger, Chris Kerr, Sharon Tice, Linnea Cedarstaff, Lindsay Sage, Cassie Sage. BACK ROW: Barb Hickok, Missy Seaman, Jane Cairy, Marty Thompson.

The challenge of ideas is the exciting aim of Reading Discussion club. Brave New World, A Separate Peace, Of Mice and Men, and Heart of Darkness were among books that stimulated discussion this year.

DELEGATES TACKLE WORLD AFFAIRS

Practice sessions precede the actual mock assemblies.

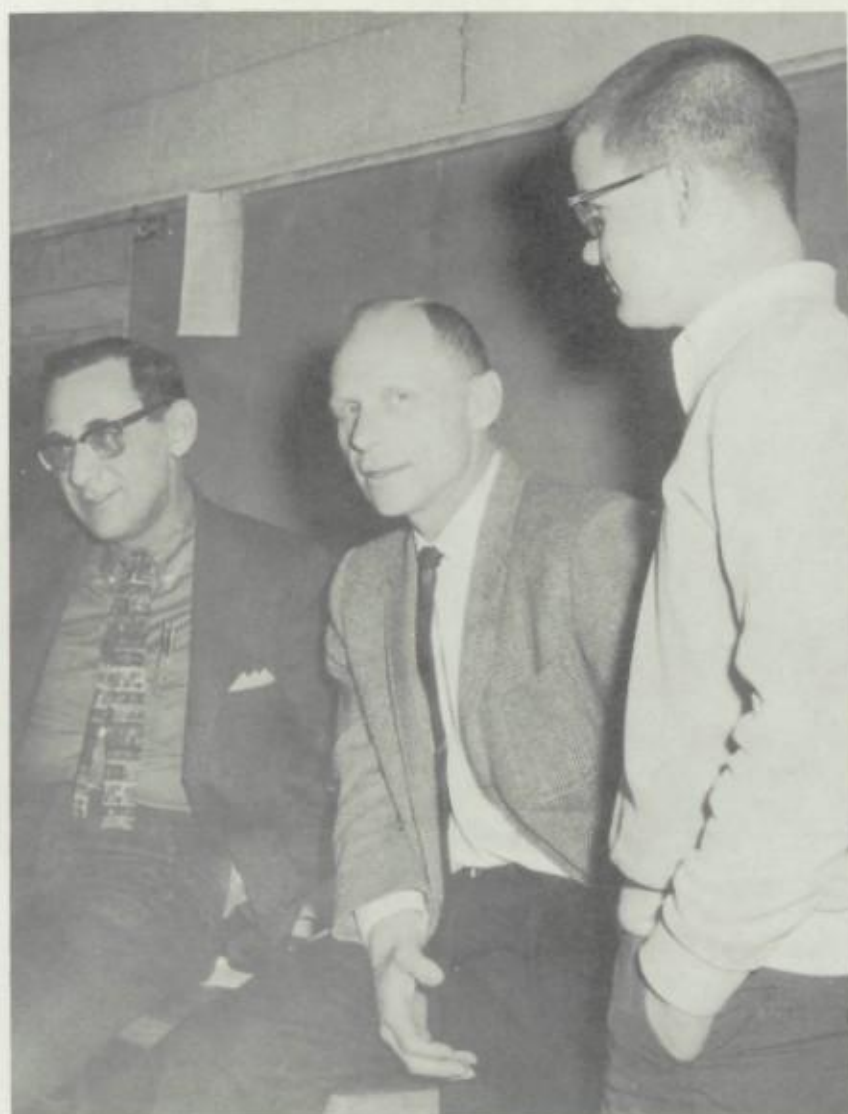

OFFICERS: Frank Kessler, Barb Sadoff, John Sadoff, Julia Wrigley, Chris Lansing, Karel Starin, Bill Hamilton, and sponsor, Mrs. Rall.

International problems are never far away from the attention of the United Nations club members. With Ann Kerry, alumna of '63, serving as the assembly president, members tangled with such burning issues as the back payments of the USSR and the proposed censure of US and Belgium for rescue missions in the Congo. A notable speaker, Dr. Charles Wrigley, helped them set up their block system for voting. The club also sent their own speakers to the local elementary schools to help promote the UNICEF drive. They gave further support by selling the United Nations Cookbook. Direct contact was made with the UN club at MSU where members ushered and served as pages. An even greater understanding of the organization was gained by the club's participation in the state meeting of the Michigan Association for the United Nations, held in Ann Arbor.

Members promoted UN week with a display in the library showcase.

Mr. Frank Pinner, Mr. Meulendyke, and George Brookover, discuss one aspect from Mr. Pinner's speech.

Chuck St. Clair and Dave Winder peer at the world maps.

RESOLVED: TO BE BETTER INFORMED ON CURRENT TOPICS

Centering on discussion of modern political issues plus activities related to political campaigns and elections the Political Forum Club provides a focus of ideas for its members. The members common purpose is to learn about and discuss, with the help of outside experts, such current issues as American Foreign policy, civil rights and State governments.

Not only a discussion group, the club has sponsored activities to put ideas into practice. Organizing a political campaign leading to an election and debates on contemporary political problems are an important part of the club's yearly activities. Finally, to get a real view of politics in action, the club has attended various functions on the local level.

DEBATERS ARGUE NUCLEAR CONTROL

Mr. Barr stands with club officers, Randy Bodwin, vice-president; Randy Thurman, president; Brian Koon, secretary-treasurer.

Steve Miller, Brian Koon, Terry Lee, and Bill Nolting stage a mock debate.

To further the speaking ability of members, and to acquaint them with varied styles of discussion and debate are the aims of Debate club. Members act as chairmen and time keepers for meets and also serve as hosts for home debates. Money raising schemes promoted by the club during the year were refreshment sale at Battle Creek Central basketball game, and coat check concession at Jackson Parkside game.

Vicki Long, Suzanne Richards, Don Winter, George Gilmore, Miriam Rokeach, Carol Peterson, Sylvan Anttonen, Carl Fangboner, promise to uphold Thespian traditions.

THESPIANS PROMOTE DRAMATIC ARTS

The mastery of language, development of poise, and appreciation of dramatic literature and techniques are the aims of Troupe 2150 of the National Thespian society. The Troupe works with Mr. Barr on the school plays and participates in the regional convention at Western Michigan University, and High School Drama Day at MSU. Ten points are necessary for admission to the group, and may be earned by participation in school plays, musicals, DJ shows, or by work on committees relating to these activities.

Mary Carol Kingsley, secretary-treasurer; Brian Downey, president; Mr. Barr, sponsor; Dan Mattern, vice president; and Dick Mienke, scribe; officiate at a club meeting.

Guiding activities of Photography club were: Kathie Chute, secretary; Tom Jury, treasurer; John Pegg, president; David Reid, vice president.

PHOTOGRAPHERS IMPROVE TECHNIQUES AND SHARE IDEAS

Customarily behind the camera, Photography club members crowd into their dark room to become the subjects.

Photography club members pool their ideas to find new techniques of composition and darkroom procedures. Photographs were discussed by the group, and developing, printing, and enlarging problems receive attention. Local photographers meet with the club to make suggestions for interesting shots, and to advise on technical points. Professional photography magazines and annuals afford comparative study.

WRITING TAKES PRIORITY FOR JOURNALISM ENTHUSIASTS

The year's officers were Lori Shingleton, secretary-treasurer; Melinda Main, exchange editor; Cathy Hoven, president; Sherry Vore, vice president.

Journalism club offers an opportunity for editors, reporters, photographers and business staff to exchange ideas, plan future issues of the Trojan Trumpet, and learn new techniques through panel discussions, films, and talks by outside experts.

Speakers this year have included Dave Martens, public service manager of the State Journal, and Harry Stapler, Towne Courier editor.

Boyd Shumaker explains the working of a camera to Journalism Club members.

FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS CLARIFIED BY STUDY

Opportunities in investment, purchase of a car, and the budget of college expenses are subjects investigated by Finance Club members. A visit to a brokerage house is one of their activities and speakers and movies on checking accounts, and the wise use of money are included in the program.

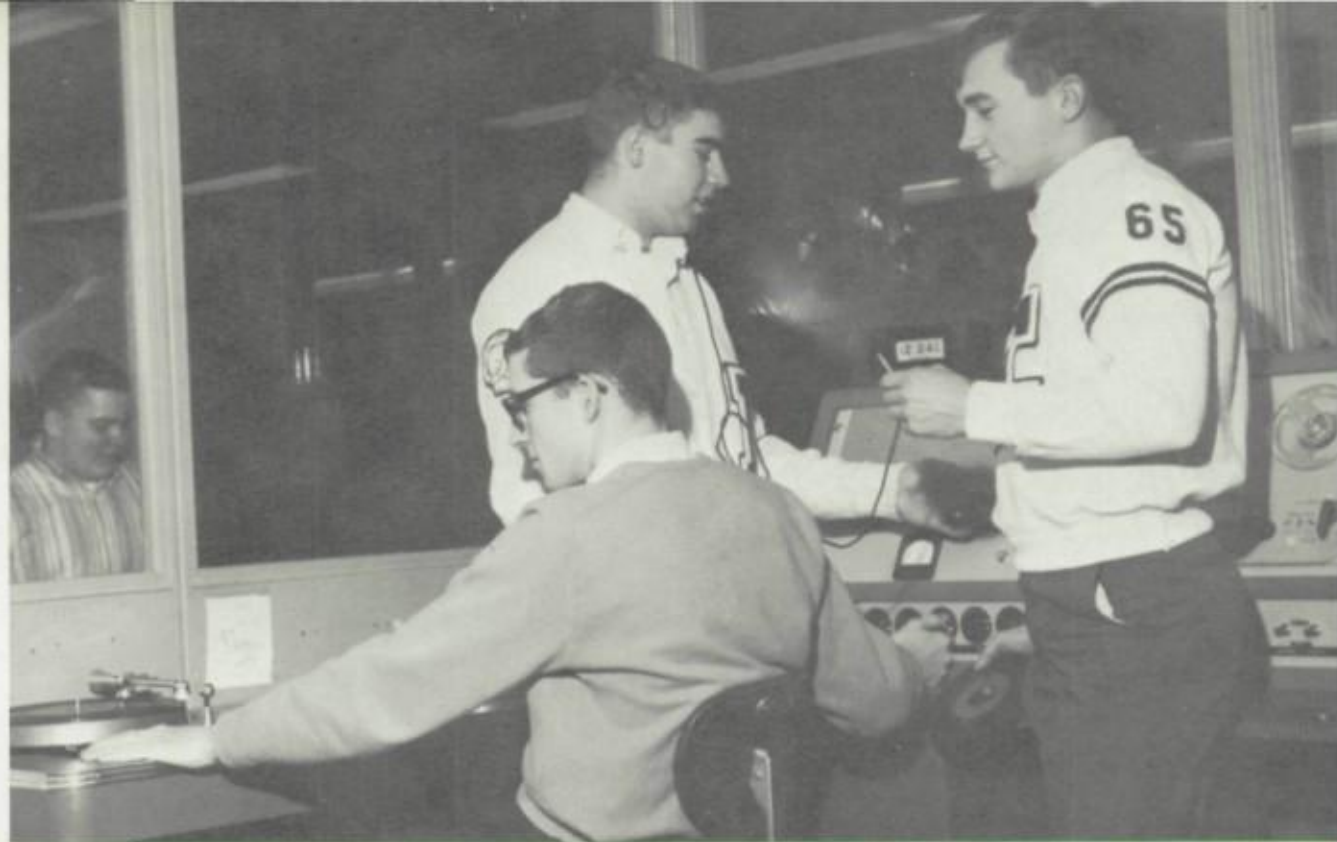

Studying the stock page following a talk on finance by Dr. Leonard Roll are Joan Cunningham, Vicki Clemens, and Pat Cosey.

Officers and sponsor make plans for a meeting: Skip Powell, president; Debbie Lowe, secretary; Tom Pennell, vice president; Mrs. Cox, sponsor; Tom Atkin, treasurer.

DISCS TURN AT DAWN

Bob Byerrum, Steve Pletz, and Rocky Ball roll the discs.

The advancement and appreciation of better music, proper programing, and the entertainment of the students, are just a few of the goals of the Disc Jockey Club. Their activities include a fifteen minute radio program each morning before school and the sponsoring of the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

The group was led this year by general manager Tom Cobb, program director Cam Phillips and continuity director Bill Ivey. Other officers were traffic director Rocky Ball and librarian Bob Byerrum.

Our leaders: Bob Byerrum, Cam Phillips, Tom Cobb, Bill Ivey, and Rocky Ball.

STUDENTS SHOW FASCINATION WITH BIOLOGY

Protozoan, Arthropoda, Thallophyte, or Mammalia—no matter how you're classified, if you like Biology, you belong here. Sponsored by Mr. Walker, the Biology Club members become better acquainted with the biological sciences through research projects, field trips and lectures.

Roy Bryan, Bill Cantlon, Cindy Cheney, Jack Bell, and Phil Cantino prepare an acid test.

JETS PREPARE FOR TOMORROW

To encourage an interest in the study of science, the Junior Engineering Technical society performed experiments at East Lansing elementary schools. The local society is part of a nationwide organization which promotes the study of science. Club meetings give an opportunity for individual projects, and a field trip to the Ford Motor company plant at River Route climaxed the activities.

Gathered around an oscilloscope are Sue Irmiter, secretary; Chuck Wolterink, treasurer; Mr. Hamilton, sponsor; and John Sebeson, president.

MATHEMATICIANS CALCULATE THE ANSWERS

Leaders of the club's activities are Steve Reynolds, president; Mary Lee Guyer, secretary; Mr. Douglas, sponsor; Truett Smith, program chairman; Chuck Hartman, treasurer.

Math club members find problem solving a challenge, and this was their focus for the year. Professors from the Mathematics department at MSU often attended meetings, and spoke on further developments in the field. The Computer Center at MSU interested the group on a field trip.

Susie Betz, Steve Reynolds, Wendy Hocking, and Truett Smith listen attentively as Mr. Douglas explains an equation.

FUTURE TEACHERS LEARN BY DOING

Future Teachers Association is part of the state organization as well as the Michigan Education Association. Its aim is to develop greater ties with the state organization and to acquaint each member with the many possibilities of the teaching profession. They are represented this year in the state organization by June Lombardini who is state Historian-Parliamentarian.

One of the major projects of the local FTA is an annual visitation day in which each member visits a local school and grade level of her choice, going once or twice in a year. A tea is held in the spring honoring all the teachers visited as well as our high school teachers. Another major project is the FTA assistants. Their duties consist of filing, typing, making bulletin boards and grading certain kinds of papers.

Programs consisted of speakers from among our group who have had interesting experiences as well as outside people representing various educational groups. One highlight of our year was the visit to the MEA building as guests of Delta Kappa Gamma, an international honorary society for teachers.

FRONT ROW: Joanne Newman, Eileen MacLaren, Jane Larkin, Anne Long, Kathy Thomas, Kathy Dietrich, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Smith, Denise Miller, Diana Litwiler, Joyce Deming, Sherrie Lee and Barb Anderson. FUTURE NURSES VARIED

Heading Future Nurses are Sally Diggins, program chairman; Sylvan Anttonen, president; Jackie Prince, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Ramant, sponsor.

Future Nurses learn many aspects of the profession through movies of the Hope Ship and of hospital routine. Field trips to Ingham County Hospital and the Blood Bank, and speakers round out the program.

1964-1965 Future Nurses Club officers are Joyce Huguenot, Mary Dell Dunham and Sharon Huntley; sponsor, Mrs. Bozek.

The many activities of nurses were illustrated for members when Future Nurses visited the School for the Blind, Lansing hospitals, and the Okemos Rehabilitation center. Movies and speakers further their knowledge of the nursing profession.

SPEAK GERMAN, THINK GERMAN

One highlight of the Language Department Christmas party was the German club refreshment table.

German music, songs, films, talks, and games give German club members the opportunity to speak the language and learn about the customs and ways of the country. Club meetings often include such varied activities as bingo, scrambled word games, group singing, skits by members, and reports on travel in Germany.

Mrs. Fischer, sponsor of German club, and Chad Hocking, president; Beth Kiefer, secretary-treasurer; Suzanne Richards, vice president, are seated in front of a colorful map and picture display.

THE GLORY THAT WAS ROME COMES TO ELHS

The Junior Classical League is an organization formed to promote Latin Studies on the national level. The East Lansing section, led by sponsor Mrs. Bell and president Terry Lee, attends state and national conventions. The group also raises funds to provide a scholarship to encourage the further study of Latin in college. The annual Latin Banquet, where first-year students are slaves serving their second- or third-year slave-driving masters, is the climax of the year for the group.

At the JCL State Convention on Michigan State University campus March 27, two East Lansing High students won awards, out of the 3600 students who attended. Jim Fisher won third place in the mythology contest, and Sally Thompson took third place in the vocabulary.

FRENCH CLUB MERGES CULTURE WITH GAIETY

A study of French cultural contributions to the world occupied French Club members during the year, and speakers, movies, and games varied the fare. A cosmopolitan Christmas party brought together French, German, and Spanish Clubs for a mingling of languages. Refreshments and decorations typified the individual countries.

Preparing to greet members and guests at the Christmas celebration were Derek Richardson and Lisa Dietrich.

Diligence and concentration were required as the meetings were planned by Derek Richardson, Christel Bachmann, Kathy Main, and Sigrid Schulze.

Float formation requires split-second timing.

Aquettes sponsor, Miss McNames, on board with the officers, Ann Dunn, treasurer; Gail Thompson, secretary; Joyce Deming, vice president; and Mary Lee Guyer, president.

This year's Aquettes show, "Strokes From a Pen," was based on a literary theme. Each act depicted scenes from well-known books. Club members pass a synchronized swimming test to perform in the water show. The girls are responsible for the complete production of each number including writing, costuming, music, and the swim routine. The highlights of the show on May 19 and 21 were an intermission number by the Porpoise Club and a grand finale. The year's activities were ended by a splash party held jointly with the Porpoise Club.

PORPOISE CLUB POOLS TALENT

Porpoise club members are swimming enthusiasts who give assistance at home meets by timing and judging. The development of swimming skills and techniques is the business of the club, and operation of the coat check concession at meets nets a profit for the group.

Officers this year were: Toby Stadden, secretary; Mary Ann Sternberg, treasurer; Tina Cross, vice president; Rob McGillicudy, president.

Numerous Saturday mornings were spent by Porpoise club members in the construction of the swimming record board.

The String and Symphony Orchestra, directed by Mr. Bartlett, strives to bring alive the music of the past and present. It performs publically at concerts, festivals, and assemblies. This year the Orchestra journeyed to Jackson for the District Festival and to Ypsilanti for the State Festival.

BAND AND SCHOOL

The Activity Band, directed by Mr. Bunch, is intended for students who wish to prepare for Concert Band and those who desire to play an instrument without the usual rehearsals and programs of Concert Band and Orchestra.

The Wind Ensemble, Directed by Mr. Bartlett, is a concert-performing organization that operates after the marching band has completed the football season. Open to students in grades 10 to 12 through an audition, the Wind Ensemble also performs at festivals and assemblies.

MARCHING BANDS HILITES

Throughout the football season the drum major, majorettes, and marching band are at work. This year's drum major was John Sebeson. Majorettes included Mary Lee Guyer, Deanna Litwiler, Susie Greer, and Peg Hart.

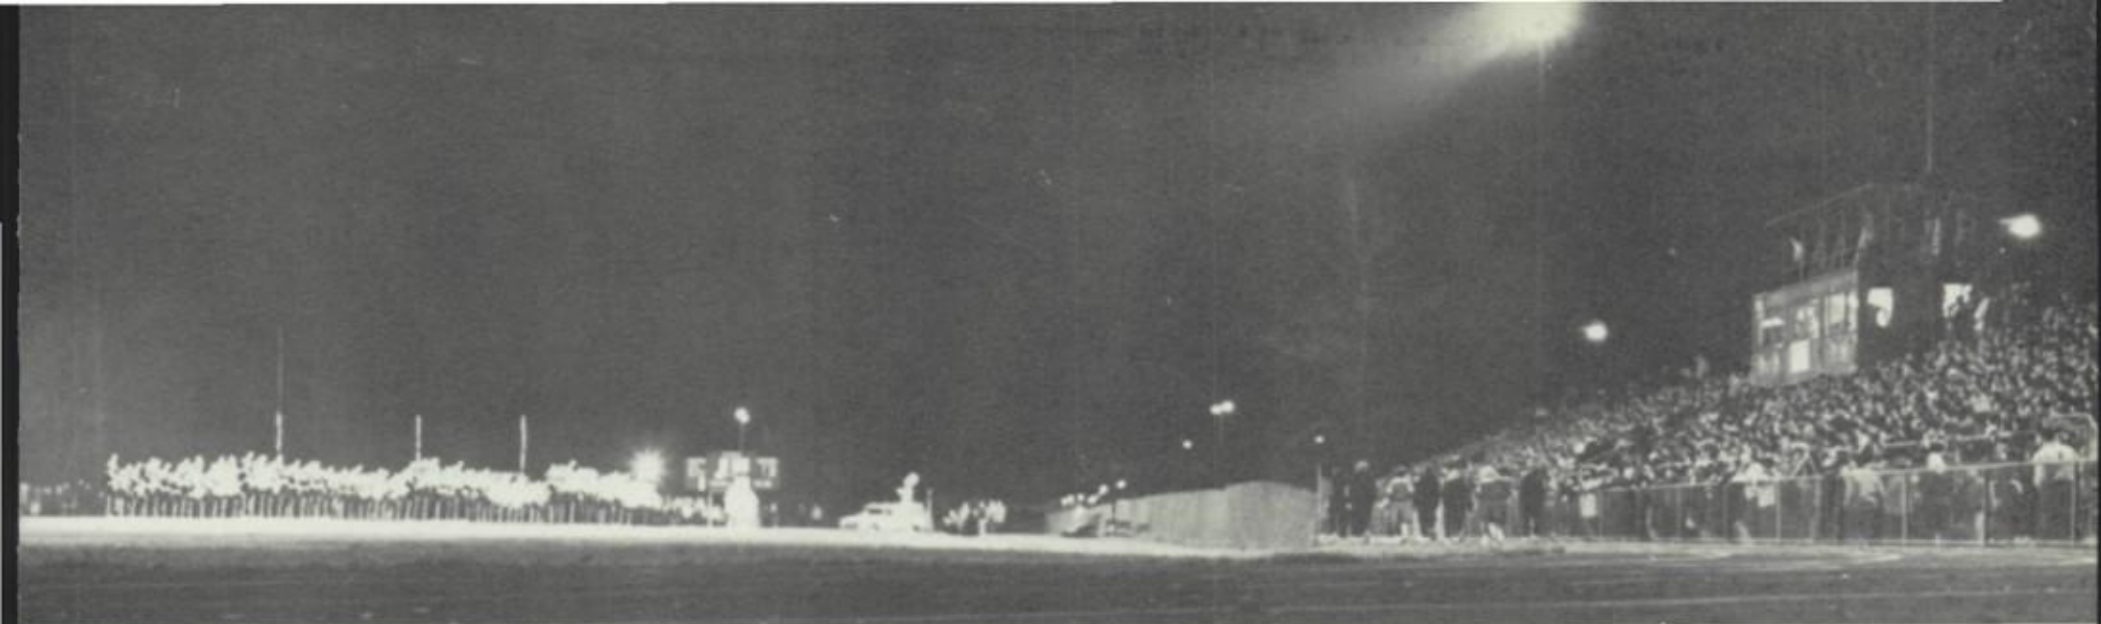

Because many of the high school students participate in Summer Orchestra and Community Band concerts, they are well prepared for practice sessions which start in late August, and continue throughout football season.

Vocal music groups are a bridge between school and community. Elsingers performed before groups at Kellogg Center and participated in the Madrigal Festival at Grand Rapids. Chamber Choir received a one rating in all categories at the District Festival at Jackson Parkside. At Christmas time the choir performed the Messiah with the Orchestra. Rounding out the vocal groups are the Girl's Choir, Choir II, and Beginning Choir.

BETWEEN STUDENTS AND FACULTY

A "Great Society" for ELHS was the goal of this year's Student Council. An orientation program under the guidance of Kathy Bennett started off the year's activities. Homecoming festivities were handled by Bix Norman and Ellen Kumata. Nancy Erickson and typists slaved to publish the Student Directory early this year. The annual magazine drive was the biggest success ever under the leadership of Roger Williams, John Kuhlman and Kit Kennedy. It was quickly followed by the Talent Show, directed by Mr. Richards, Marilyn Howey and Brian Downey.

Our charity projects were many this year. In addition to the Honduran project, we again participated in the Teens Against Polio Bread Drive, and thanks to Mary Butler and her committee, EL was again the largest contributor. Jim Vincent and crew collected 1500 cans of food which students contributed to needy families in the Lansing area at Christmastime. We continued our sponsorship of Roger Tosie, the American Indian boy, and sent his schoolmates 25 boxes of Christmas toys.

A new pop machine was installed in the cafeteria and the Party Rules were revised, both through the efforts of Steve Reynolds. The Student Store came under the control of the Council this year, and Cindy Martin sparked arrangements. Profits of the store go into the Council Project Fund. Bill Morschek helped begin an intramural program for those not in varsity athletics. Council continued to send the cheerleaders to away games and gave scholarship pins and certificates to our intelligentsia. A Field Day and dance under chairman Jim Vincent were held in the spring. Steve Reynolds and Maxine Marion were general student chairmen of the Community Ball, "Springtime, U.S.A.," held on May 1st.

All complaints of students were welcomed, and acted upon, in the Suggestion Box. The Council survived without too many of these, however, and enjoyed a hardworking, but profitable year.

The biggest project of the year was the building of a school in Honduras through CARE. Students contributed $1,173 and Council added $1,000 to provide the needed funds. Linda Nelson, Julie Householder and Marilyn Howey watch Mr. Kinney sign the final check.

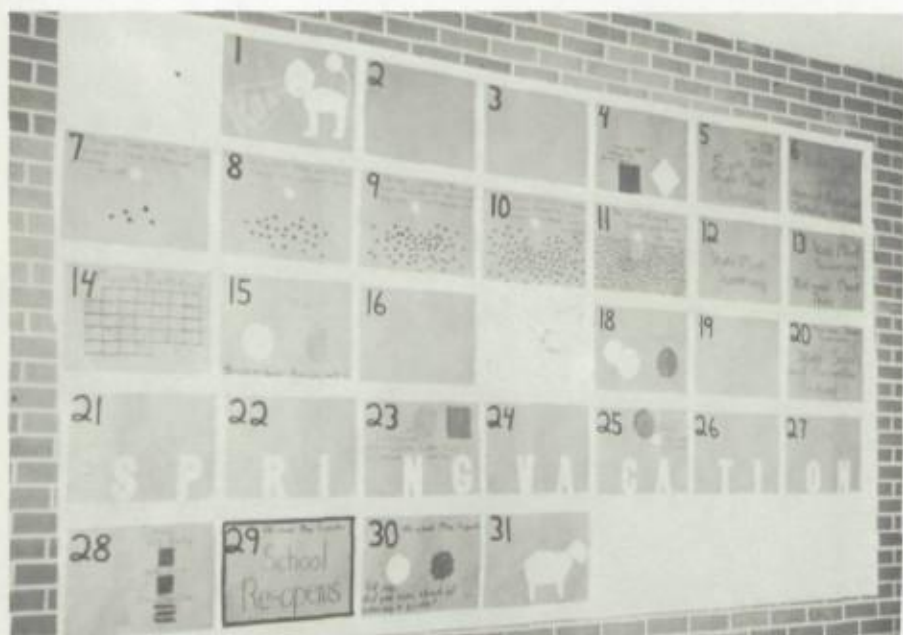

To honor our state champions, a Council Committee put up a banner and set up a window display of the football trophies. Members of this Committee, Mary Butler, Lori Shingleton, Toni Benedict, and Julie Ziegler post in front of the trophy case. Hard working Anne Hoagland was not present for the picture.

SNOWBALL GOES SOUTHERN

The plantation life of pre-Civil war days met the high school life of ELHS at this year's Snow Ball, the annual girl bid semi-formal dance sponsored by Y-Teens. Savannah, Georgia, in the 1860's was the setting for this year's Snow Ball scheduled after Christmas for the first time. The decorations were last century, but the music was the modern sound of the Elites. Everyone enjoyed dancing surrounded by scenes of plantation life and river boats. DEBATERS WIN REGIONAL

Bob Belding winds up his affirmative speech as Randy Bodwin reviews his notes.

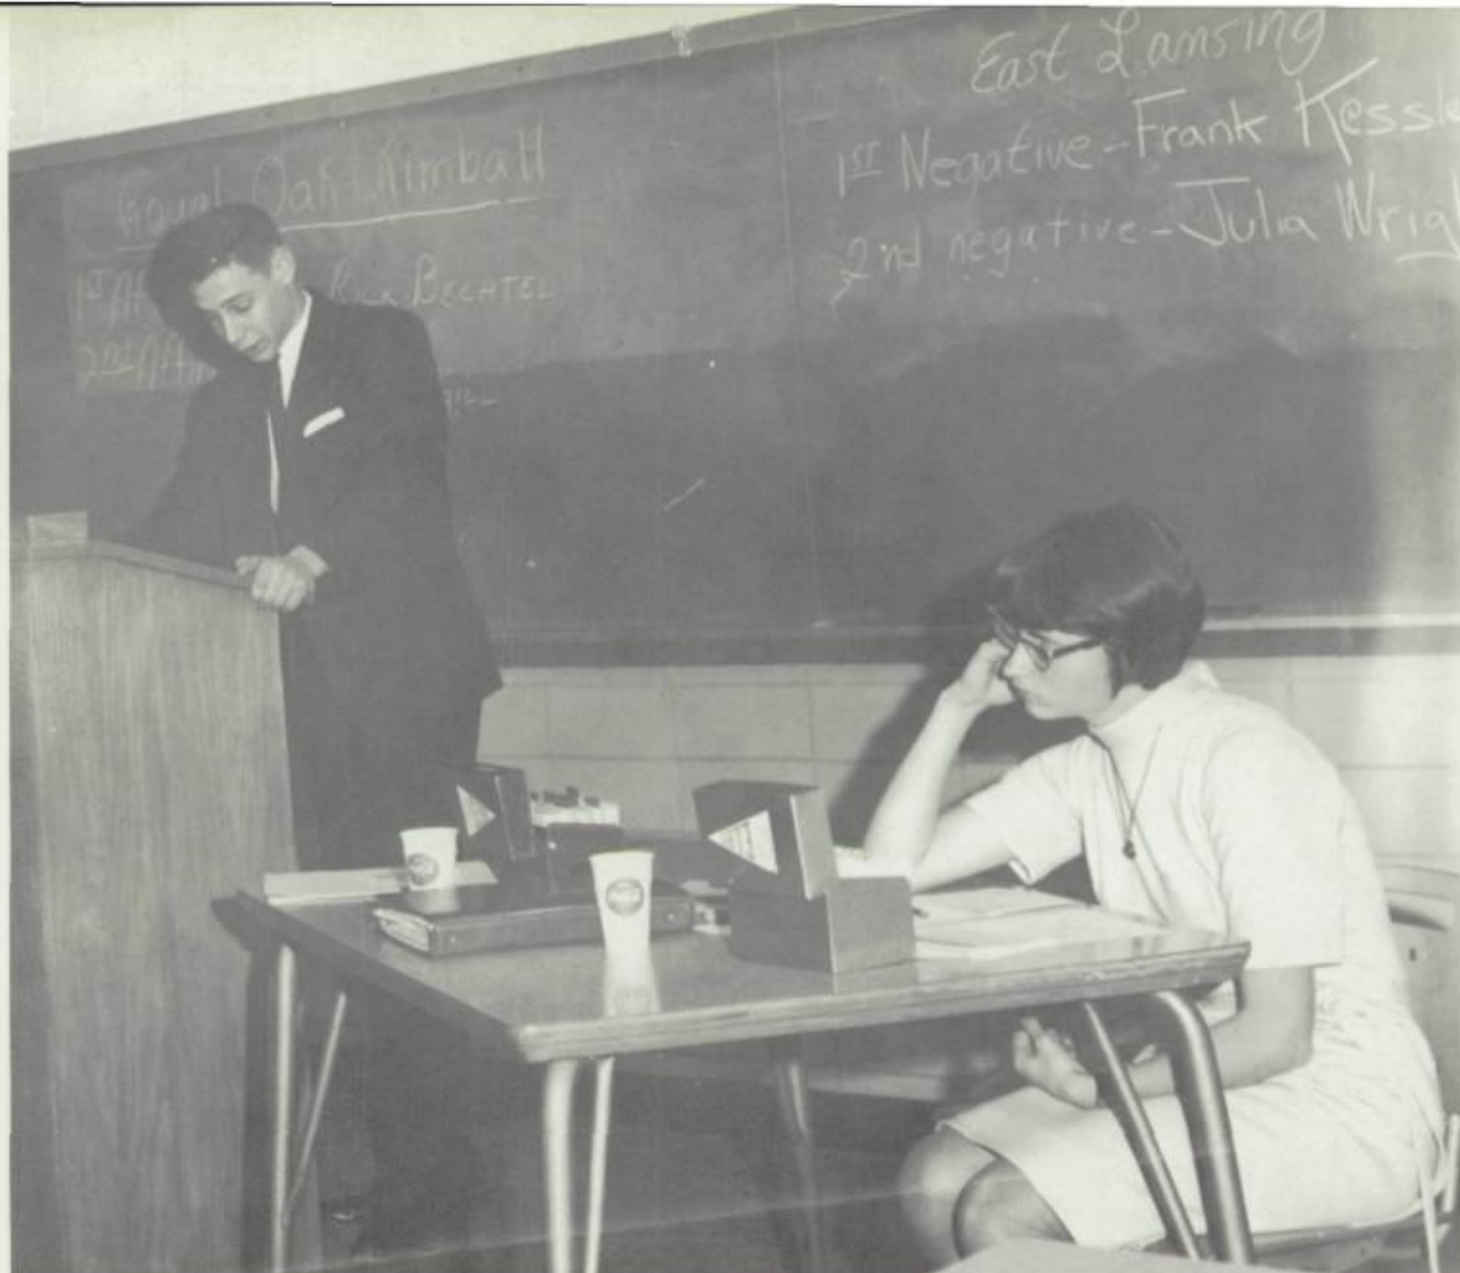

Team captain Jim Adams emphasizes a point.

The debate team, now in its second year of competition, has had another highly successful season. This year's topic was "Resolved: that nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization." John Sebeson and Jim Adams, team captain, debated varsity affirmative. Frank Kessler and Julia Wrigley debated varsity negative. Julia placed first in the district competition and represented the district in the Detroit Free Press Scholarship competition in May. The varsity debaters were named winners in the district and regional elimination tournaments and advanced into the state semi-finals. Only ten class A-B schools survived the four regional tournaments. Coach Charles W. Barr II said, "It was indeed an honor to work with one of the top ten teams in the State. We can all be justly proud of their fine work."

East Lansing also entered junior varsity competition for the first time. The junior varsity showed great promise for the future by winning the South Central Championship.

Julia Wrigley and Frank Kessler placed first and second respectively as the best debaters in District competition.

Senior John Sebeson and Truitt Smith seem pleased that their opponent's time has elapsed.

Excellent spirit characterized the Freshman and JV squads this year. The Freshmen were bigger and played more astute football than in some years past. The boys on the JV squad also improved their playing skills, but their prime improvement was teamwork. As they learned to work together they played better football. Both teams posted excellent seasons.

HARRIERS HAVE GOOD SEASON

The Trojan cross country squad enjoyed a better-than-average season, ending with a dual meet record of six wins, 1 loss, and two ties, the latter two against Jackson Parkside and Ann Arbor, both teams qualified for the state meet. At the AA competition at the Albion Invationals, the harriers placed second, behind Wyandotte-Roosevelt. In the conference and city meets, East Lansing again took second. The team was led this year by Aubrey Mullings, who consistently placed high all year, along with Rick Knobloch, who was the only Trojan to qualify for the state meet, and co-captains Steve Miller and Mike Pellerin.

The Trojan cagers finished the season with a 9-8 mark for their eleventh consecutive winning basketball season. Highlights of the season were the four victories over cross-town rivals, Eastern and Everett, by an average of twenty points a game. The Grand Rapids Godwin Heights game will be remembered as the game the Trojans scored a sizzling 101 points to set a new scoring record for our High School. Other victories came against East Grand Rapids, Battle Creek and two over Adrian.

In the districts the Trojans soundly defeated Eastern by twenty-three points and went on to the finals to face Sexton. Against Sexton an inspired Trojan quintet fought the Big Reds to a standstill in the first and third quarters only to lose by a scant two points in the fourth.

Craig Tefft led the Trojans this year in scoring with 150 points. Lynn Janson, a junior, scored a very respectable 185 points with John Fuzak and Dave Dean scoring 171 and 132 points respectively.

This was Coach Rufe's first season with the varsity squad and we can be mighty proud of the team he put together this year.

WRESTLERS FACE TRYING SEASON

Although our Trojan grapplers had a 2 win — 8 loss season, Coach Leo Smedley holds much hope for the future because of the high number of team members who are under-classmen. The Trojan victories were against tough competition and overwhelming odds. They dropped three meets to Adrian, Jackson, and Battle Creek Central by a scant two points.

Brightspot of the Trojan season was the fine wrestling of senior matman, Jack "Paco" Zindell, who had such a good season that it earned him a trip to the state meet where he placed second.

The 1964-65 season was one of the best ever for the Trojan Swimmers. Led by Rob McGillicuddy and Dale Kesel, and coached by Randy Hagerman and Ned Bennett, the swimmers splashed to a 10 - 1 season record.

During the year, pool, varsity, and dual meet records fell as soon as they were set. Tom Kuhlman, freshman diver, broke the diving record held by team mate Dale Kesel, and helped move East Lansing to a score of 84 - 21 against Waverly, only four points away from the highest possible total.

At the South Central Conference Meet, E.L. took Third place, with first place finishes by Bob Jones in the 400-yard freestyle, and Jon Cross in the 100-yard freestyle. Jones, Cross, Kesel, Kuhlman, and Pete Levine represented E.L. in the State Meet held at M.S.U. on March 12 and 13.

In good form, Lynn Janson swings through with success.

Bill,
A fancy writing isn't it? It's too bad we have to leave this fine school, or isn't it! At least we've had some good times. Florida was great fun even though I didn't see much of you. Take it easy this summer and don't work too hard at there. Maybe I'll see ya down in college. I hope to see every body when I come home.
Get those good grades, especially like on the vocab final. Good luck next year and always.

Benny,

Unlike the various other times I've signed your yearbook, I will avoid any wanton language or suggestions. After being friends for so long, I could write pages but I'll attempt to hold it down. You've always been a great friend and a friendship like ours will never end. Keep in touch next year and I'll do the same.

Your buddy always,

Idols

Bill, This year has been so much fun. I might be forced to be a just a little bit. TAKE CARE of Kort. Be good and good. Look in the future. Have a contest. Be good and good. Have a contest. Be good and good.

Bill,

YOUR HIGH SCHOLASTIC ABILITY IN ENGLISH HAS DEFINITELY MADE MY STUDIES IN THAT CLASS MUCH EASIER. OR HAS IT? REALLY, IN ALL SINCERETY YOUR PRESENCE HAS MADE MY LIFE MUCH MORE ENJOYABLE. I ESPECIALLY ENJOYED THE FUN WE HAD DOWN IN FLORIDA. GOOD LUCK NEXT YEAR AND I'LL SEE YOU ON THE BEACHES THIS SUMMER.

DOUG

Benny -
The send has come up our 4 years now - our homeroom left much to be desired girl wise but our table of "the boys" wasn't bad - we did have some good discussions though - you have a good friend and I will always remember the good times with Idols and Jeff when he was here - Don't be too hard on Kort - and if your parents seem abusive consult me - I can usually think of ways to get around parents - Have fun this summer on your job - Good luck in the future -

Your friend,
Phil & Idman

Bill -

Well, it's almost over!
One short week and these four years will have ended. It's been really great to have you in this class & to get to know you better this year. Best of luck to a guy with a wonderful sense of humor! I'm sure you'll always come up smiling!

SURFER BILL,

When I think of you I think of all the good times in Florida - Body Surfing - AND all sorts of little incidental. You spend so much time in the water I'm surprised you don't have gills. And these hairs - don't ever cut them cause they are your crowning glory. BEST OF LUCK IN FUTURE ENTERPRISES.

Bill -

you won't believe this, but honestly you are one of my favorite people in this class. I'm really sorry that I didn't get to know you sooner in the year, because I have enjoyed your friendship a lot.

You are a fine person, and I certainly hope that you have a wonderful career at Olds & have a greater time the next year at college.

Bill, don't ever change and I know that you will find success in everything you do.
Be good to Dorothy because you'll never know what a lucky guy you are to have a girl as kind as her.

Best of luck to you always as you deserve all of it. Always, Anne

With the Surfer,

I hope you don't wipe out the next time you shoot the curl, because then you won't be able to sing for the Beach Boys. Just keep grossing
out. "What is this thing, it must be a ~~balloon~~ balloon."
(nice)

Bill (BEACH BOY)

It's been really a riot all these years. You're really a tremendous guy. I think your hairs are really something else! They are definitely cool! RIGHT!!
Have fun this summer
with your new car & best of luck always

Surfer! Bill -
It's really been great getting to know you this year. The whole Bennetts family has always been a favorite of mine. Best of luck as a "nanny
the world." I hope to see you again
sometime!

Is there some way I can get you off your high seat board, or skate board long enough to catch a few gawks at slattery or if not that do
how can you miss,
may you always win quarters from girls like Ann. I could laugh at you but I to have to

THE BEACHBOYS MAY BE GREAT BUT YOU, IDDS, RICE, AND I ARE GREATER!
WELL BABY THE YEAR HAS BEEN A TIME OF CHANGE, LONG HAIR, FROM WHITE SOX TO DARK SOX, TO NO SOX. I'LL NEVER FORGET THE PROM AND THE DAY AT THE RAINY BEACH. I'M STILL FILLED TO THE GILLS WITH FOOD FROM THAT DAY. I'D PUT SOMETHING DOWN IN HERE ABOUT DOROTHY AND YOU, BUT
FRITZ WILL READ THIS SO I'LL COOL

W.F.B. -

I really don't know what to say. (Because Rollie has said it all - or does he know what he's babbling about) That class was unreal! It's been great getting to know you this year because of Clara! You two are perfect for each other. (This summer I won't be going back and forth in front of your house.) Have a great golfin summer and all my best wishes to you, next year and always. Take it easy.

Bill,

You O'l beach boy you!
Well we've shared a room with W.A.R. for four year's.
Then there was Creative

Senior Supplement

1965

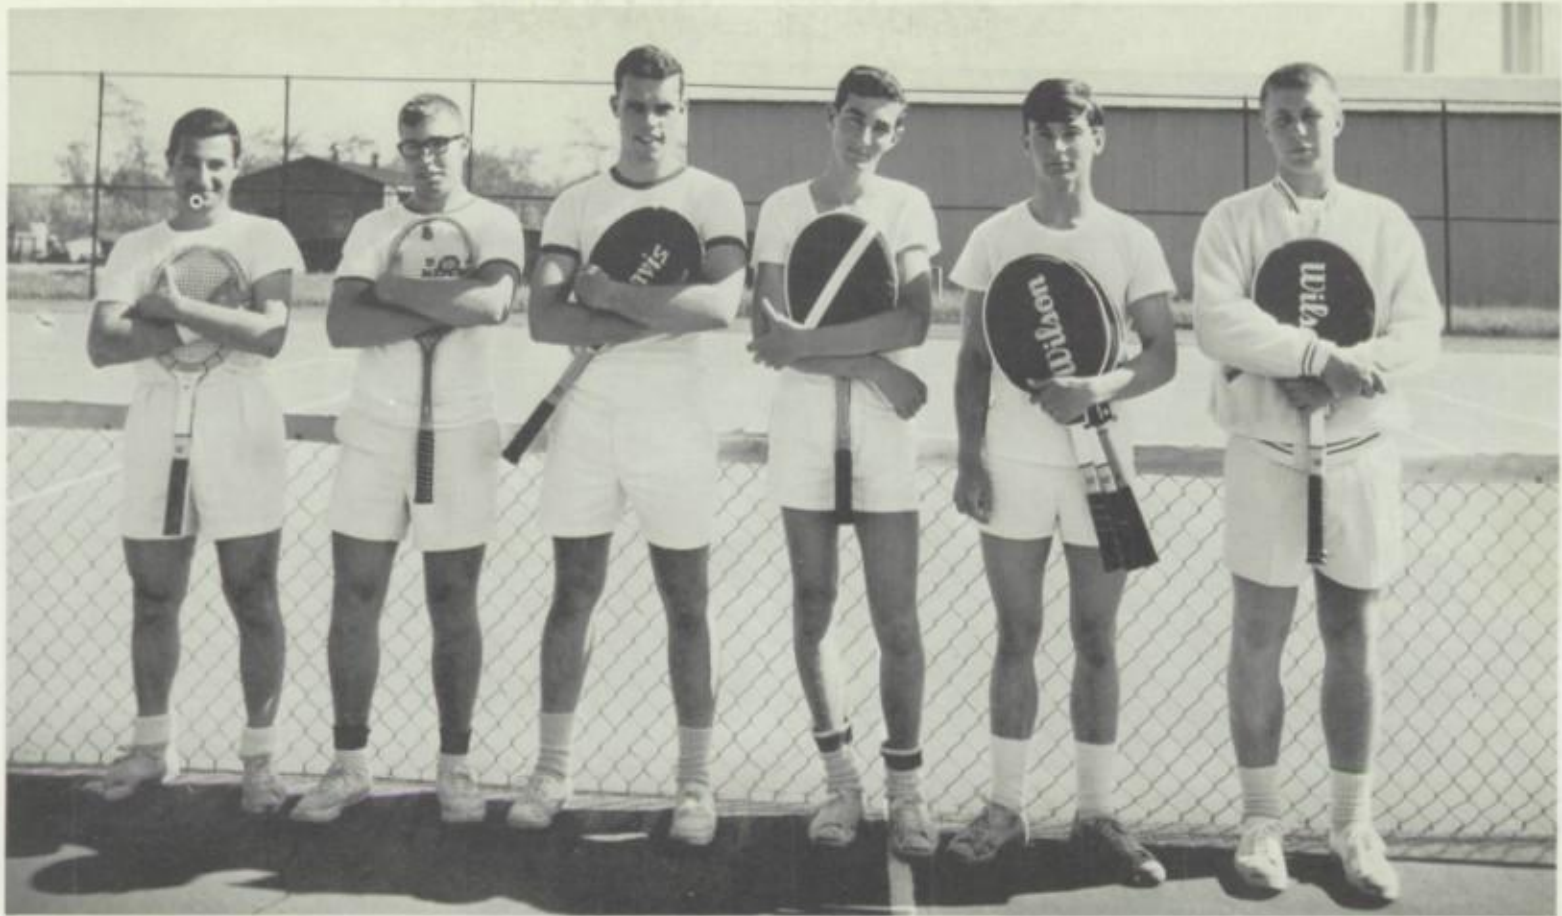

An excellent 11-5 record marked this year's baseball season for East Lansing. The Trojans marched onward for the second place spot in the North Central Conference. This year's team was paced by the fine play of seniors Ken Williams, Jon Stockton, Bob Blanding, Doug Moore, Jim Hagan, Eric Figg, Craig Tefft, John Hull, and John Robb.

BASEBALL

TRACK

Mr. Meulendyke's trackmen held a 3-2 dual meet record and finished fourth in rugged city competition. Senior power was provided by Steve Miller, Mike Wells, Gary Bredahl, Rocky Ball, Chris Boylan, Mike Abbey, Dave Winder, Jim Hamacher, Aubrey Mullings, Brian Ball, and Mike Vreeland.

It was another outstanding year for East Lansing's netters as for the fourth year in a row they were undefeated in South Central Conference play. Coach Bisard has every right to be proud of seniors John Good, Albert Mouradian, Steve Pletz, Larry McGarvey, Dave Sadoff, and Bruce Baker. John Good has won three regional titles in four years, and this year competed in the Class A state championship.

TENNIS

GOLF

This year the record of the linksmen was graced by the City Championship in addition to an 11-2-1 dual meet tally. Driving straight and long for East Lansing were seniors Don Leu, Barry Kaufman, and Larry Cushion.

"PARIS . . . AFTER HOURS"

Heading the long list of social activities of any senior year is the traditional senior prom. Ours was no exception as on May 22 we were transported to "Paris . . . After Hours." The atmosphere of Parisian gaiety was complemented by Paris sidewalk scenes, the Eiffel Tower, and the fine music of Ron Gibbs. Delicate pastries and punch were served, and many couples enjoyed dancing under the stars on the outdoor patio. Credit for a memorable evening goes to general Chairmen Cathy Cuthbertson and Skip Powell, Decorations Cindy Chevako and Don Winter, publicity Joyce Strelzoff and Steve Miller, and entertainment Don Stump. Other valuable help was provided by Laurie Friedland, Bill Morscheck, Jenny Jarrett, Dorothy Barton, and Bill Bennetts.

Not quite ready to call it an evening, seniors descended en masse on the Albert Pick for a Post Prom blast. For those who were about to go under for the third time, personalized cardboard lifesavers were thoughtfully provided. While chaperons struggled to keep awake in the kitchen, seniors ate, drank, and jerked from twelve until three. And then with date and lifesaver in hand we continued the rites of spring and seniors: On to Lake Michigan! Kudos to the senior parents and what's-his-name from WJIM.

They all looked better at night.

Understudies for the Supremes

With money from class dues and a mid-year candy sale, The Senior class sponsored a trip to Lost Valley Lodge on Lake Michigan on June 4th. Getting on the right bus at 7:00 A.M. can be confusing, but once properly sorted we made a One-stop trip to a senior beach spectacular. Suntan oil and shades were the order of the day, as we were met with perfect weather for our bikini beach party. Surf-boarding was out, but sunbathing, softball, pyramid-building, hole-digging, and girl-throwing occupied most of our time, while a few hardy souls splashed about in the cold, cold lake. As we reveled through the day, the ubiquitous Mr. Pulley gathered the photographic evidence. Sunburned and satisfied, we finally left the scene of our iniquities and returned to the drab life of East Lansing.

Them what's got 'em shows 'em.

"YOU MUST HAVE BEEN A BEAUTIFUL BABY"

In appreciation for three years of outstanding leadership, the junior class gave a party in our honor on May 27. The decorations, token gifts of baby-booty banks and refreshments of punch and cookies carried out the theme of "You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby." In place of entertainment the juniors put on a skit predicting our futures. This was followed by a dance in the gym featuring the Saharas.

"Later, darling, we'll get a Tastee-Freeze."

SHOW AND SCRAWL

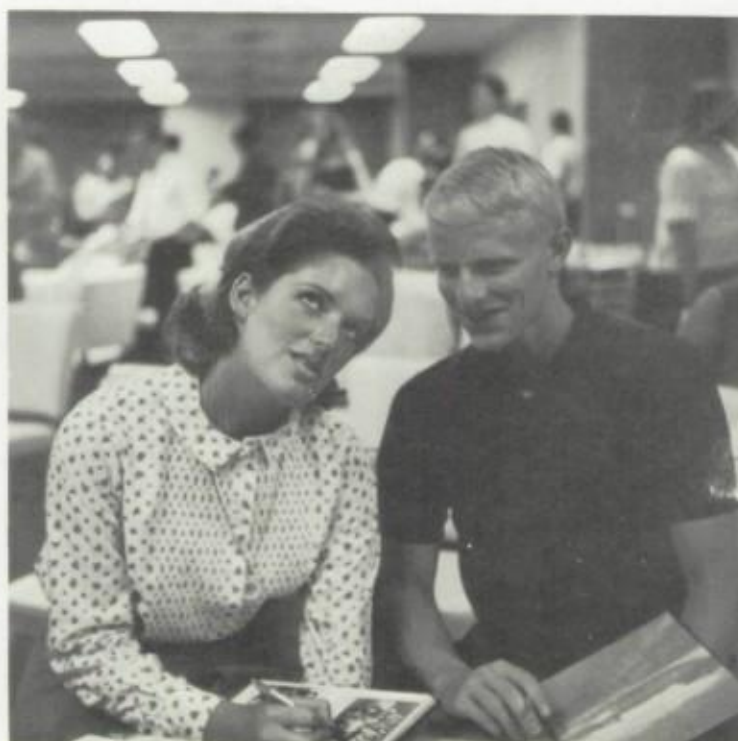

The captive audience

After the Honors Assembly, we were again guests of the seniors' parents for a Ceniad Signing Party from eight until eleven in the evening at the M.S.U. Union. Sandwiches, potato chips, and cokes were generously provided to nourish us in our Herculean task of composing deathless prose in dozens of Ceniads. Finally, with cramped hands and bleary eyes, we were entertained by a showing of slides of our senior year moderated by East Lansing High's own photographer-at-large, Mr. Pulley.

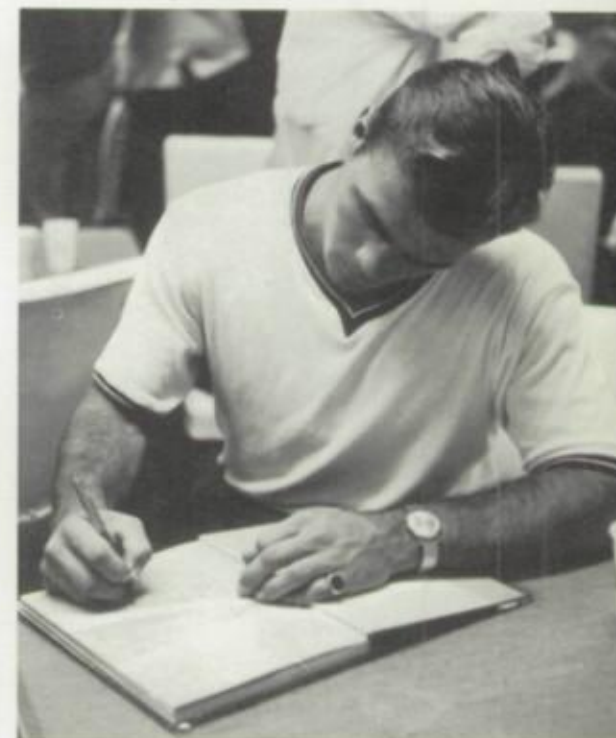

End the war in Vietnam.

"Dear B . . . Bo . . . Don't tell me, it's right on tip of my tongue."

"Let's see. Coke . . . Sprite . . . Booze."

Dear Abby . . .

What wouldn't I give for a pizza?

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Senior activities continued at their characteristic fast pace with a breakfast before Baccalaureate rehearsal. The cafeteria was decorated in a travel motif, and we enjoyed a breakfast of the inevitable ham and eggs graciously provided by our parents. Scrolls containing witty aphorisms, sounding suspiciously like Pulleyisms, provided a remembrance of the occasion. Thus refreshed and enlightened we went about the serious business of preparing for Baccalaureate.

The rather warm evening of June 13, found the Class of 1965 entering the gymnasium to the obligatory "Trumpet Tune", solemn-faced and out of step. The occasion: The traditional Baccalaureate Service. Verdi's "Requiem," sung by the Chamber Choir set the mood for "Frontiers of Faith", a show of Rhetorical prowess by Rev. Eugene Williams of Trinity Church. The recessional, "Voluntary for Trumpet" concluded the service, as some seniors trudged home to the not-so-voluntary task of studying for exams.

No thanks, just salt for me.

CLIMAX

The long-awaited climax of four years of high school came for the Class of 1965 on June 17, 1965. We marched as best we could onto Trojan Field with the stands packed with proud parents, relatives, and friends to begin an impressive outdoor commencement. After a brief invocation by Rev. C. Brandt Tefft, class president Steve Reynolds welcomed guests and introduced the student speakers, John Sebeson and Kathy Bedford. Keynote speaker was Dr. James A. Lewis of the University of Michigan. The Wind Ensemble played and a few more notable notables had their say and by a devious and incredibly tedious route we finally came to the moment that made it all worthwhile. What more need be said? Two hundred and eighty-six members of the Class of 1965 marched forward to accept their coveted diploma.

Don't go away mad, just go away.

ANTICLIMAX

Once upon a midnight dreary,
While we pondered weak and weary.

There's something about an Aqua-Velva man.
"Well, there is a fly on mine."

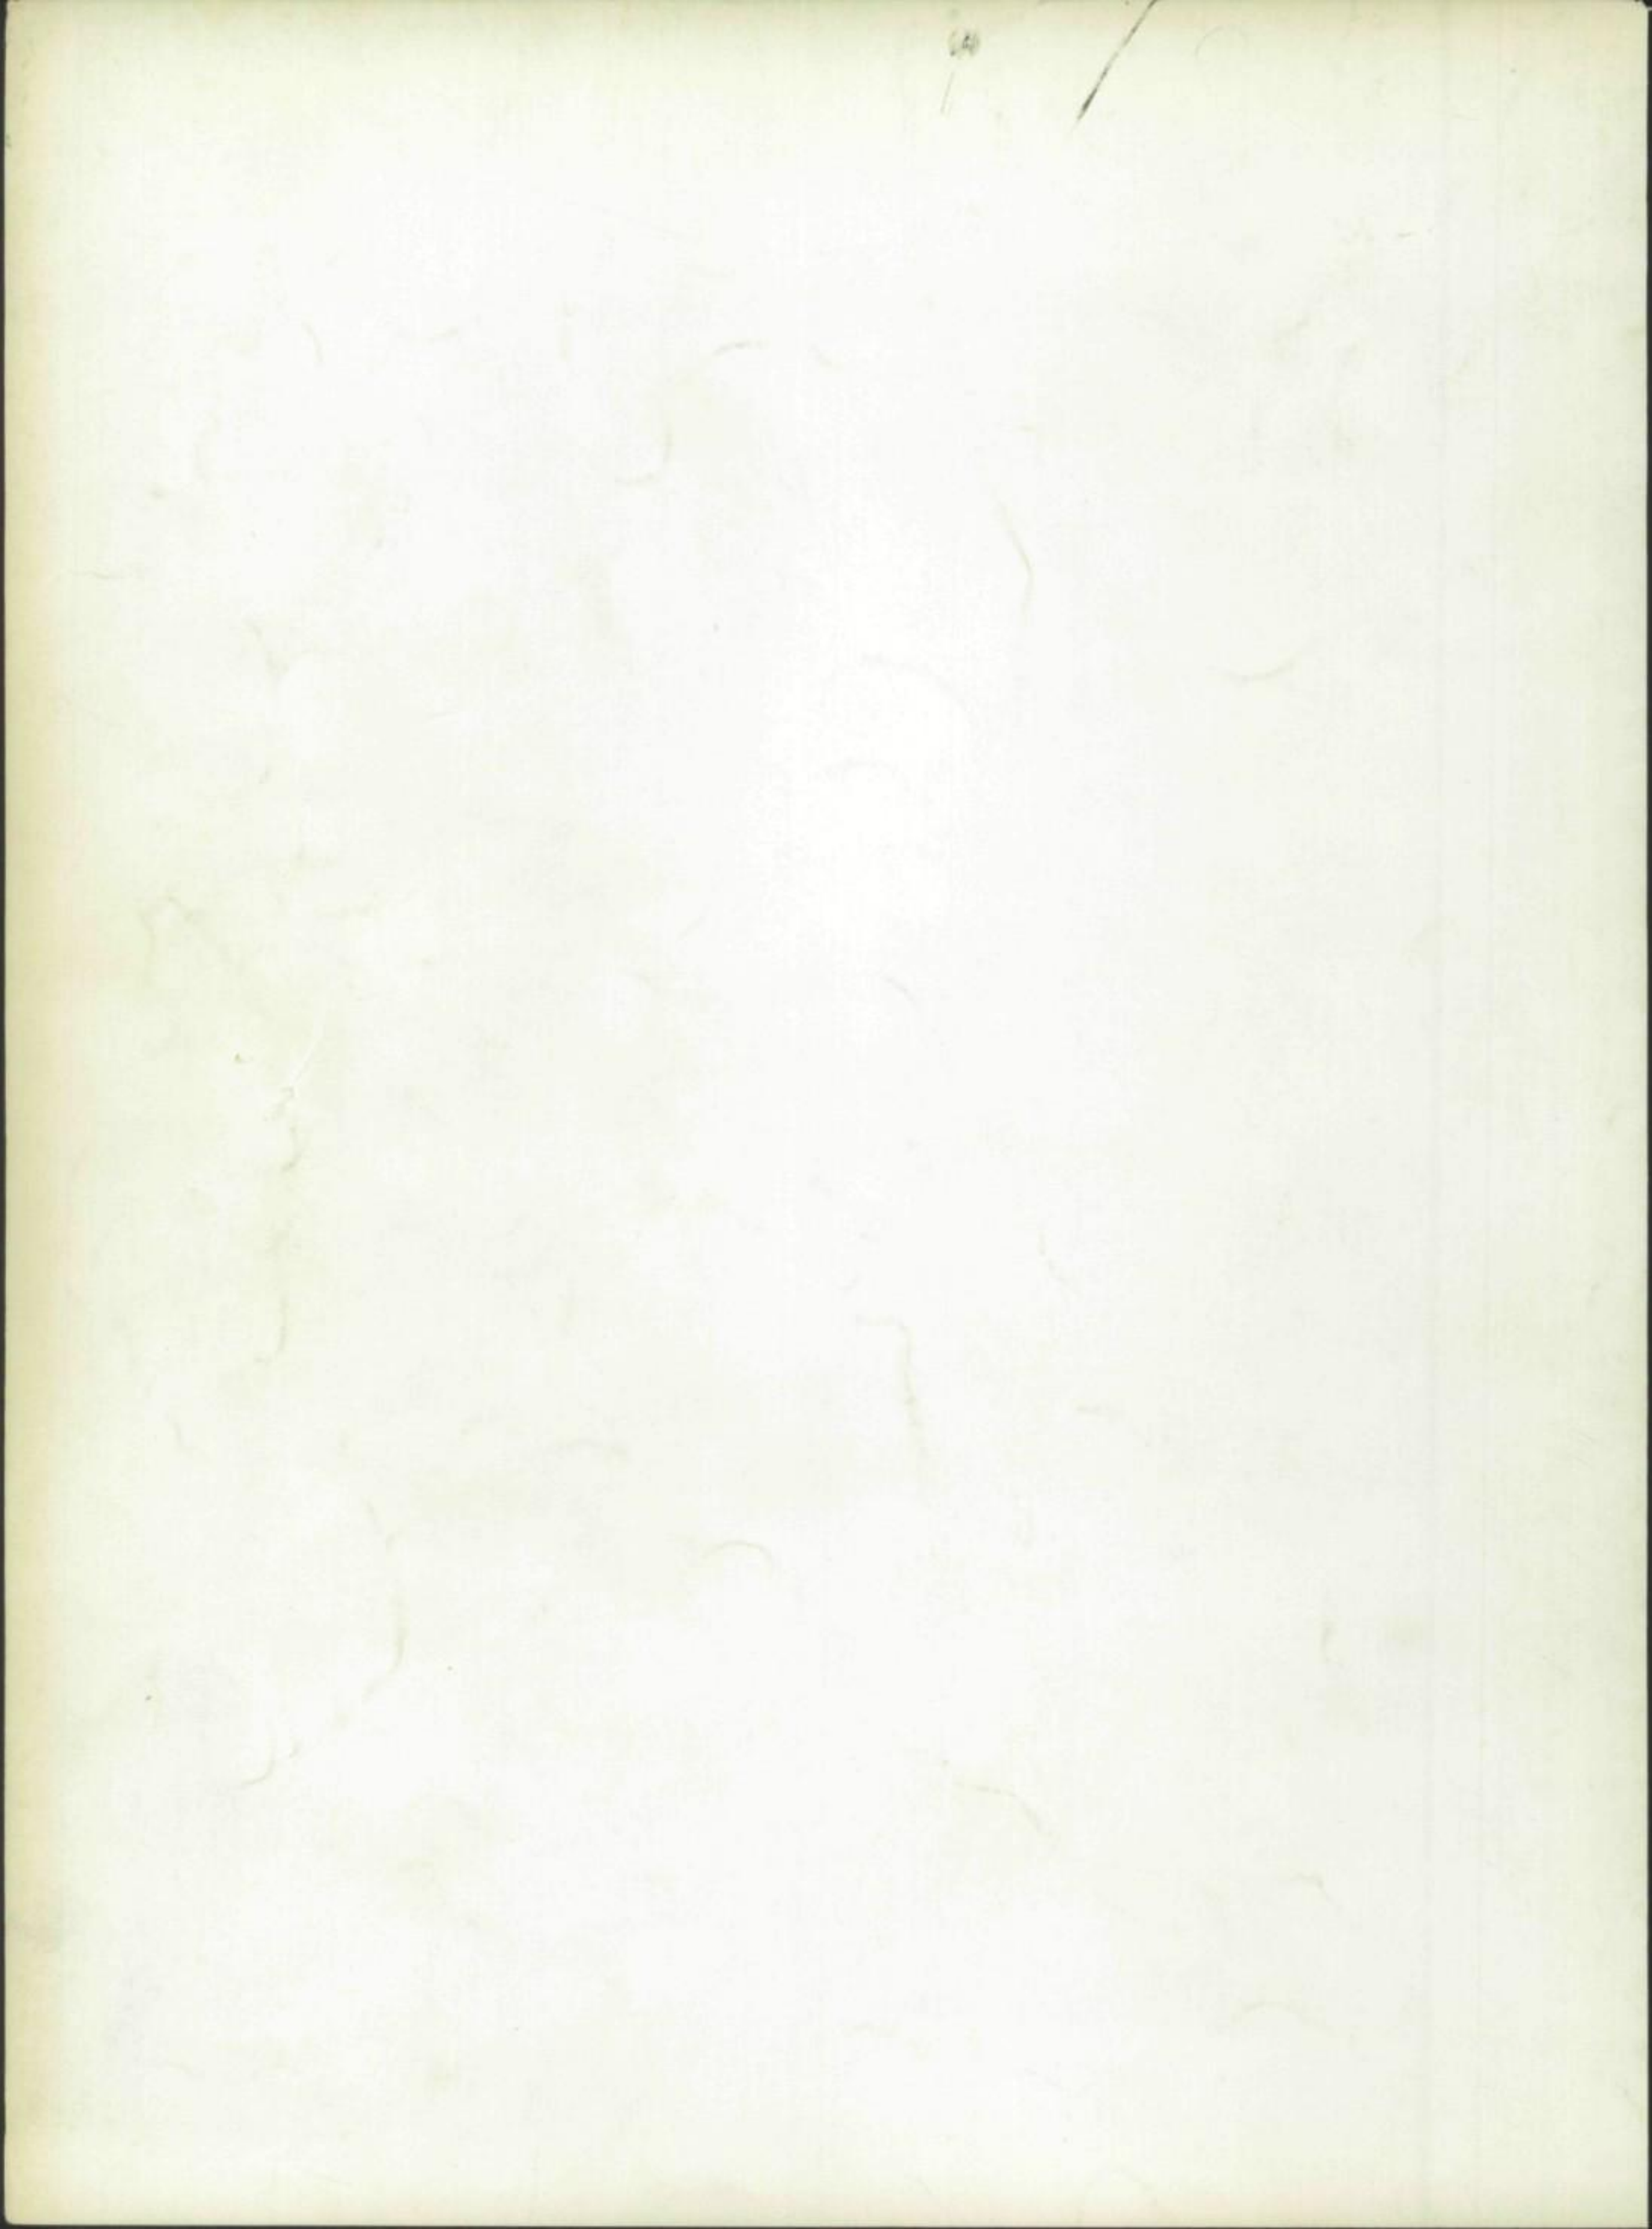

The primrose path.

With commencement and public school education forever behind us, the parents of the new graduates miraculously mustered the energy and resources for one last tribute in the form of a Post Commencement party at the Walnut Hills Country Club. It was a fitting end to it all. Parents jovially handing out ironic favors at the door, the lavish decorations subdued in the dimly-lit room, thin and superficial music and assorted class musical talent. Some danced, some talked, some ate and some reflected. That was it. When we left to go our various ways, we were all struck by the realization that the Class of 1965 was now just a thought or a memory, nothing more.
